Liberals Plan Bold Action For Economic Development Says Prime Minister King

OTTAWA, June 9.—(CP)—Prime Minister Mackenzie King said last night the Liberal party in the future as in the past will not hesitate to promote "bold action" by the state in fields of economic development where the public interest calls for it.

In his last speech of the election campaign, he declared his party stood for neither the extreme of capitalism nor the extreme of socialism, and charged that control of the Progressive Conservative Party had been seized by "small financial groups."

The prime minister spoke at a public meeting and his half-hour address was broadcast over the national network of the CBC. It probably was his last campaign speech of his political career, since he has said he does not intend to contest another general election campaign.

CRITICIZES BRACKEN

The prime minister for the first time devoted a sizable portion of his address to a criticism of John Bracken, leader of the Progressive Conservative party, and charged that that party's attacks on himself were for the purpose of concealing

Millions Homeless

Superforts Blast Three of Japan's Principal Cities

By WILLIAM F. TYREE
Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin

GUAM, June 9.—(BUP)—Five million or more Japanese have been left homeless by American air raids on five of the enemy's largest cities, radio Tokyo acknowledged today.

The broadcast came as B-29s resumed their all-explosive raids on the Japanese homeland, striking simultaneously though in comparatively small force at aircraft factories at Osaka, Kobe and and Nagoya in daylight today.

The assault coincided with Tokyo's appeal to aircraft workers to step up production to bolster Japan's waning air force for the critical battles to come.

Tokyo broadcasts, recorded in the United States by the FCC and relayed here, said 1,195,000 dwellings had been destroyed in Tokyo, Nagoya, Yokohama, Osaka and Kobe during air raids in the period March through May, leaving 4,930,000 homeless.

The enemy account did not include destruction in June raids on Osaka and Kobe.

TOTALS BY CITIES

By cities, the totals were: Tokyo—3,100,000 homeless, 767,000 dwellings destroyed; Nagoya—380,000 homeless, 96,000 dwellings destroyed; Yokohama—680,000 homeless, 132,000 dwellings destroyed; Osaka—510,000 homeless, 130,000 dwellings destroyed; Kobe — 260,000 homeless, 70,000 dwellings destroyed.

The May 24 and 26 raids alone

Warns Against Tory Success in Voting

LEASK, Sask., June 9.—(CP)—G. G. McGeer, former mayor of Vancouver and Liberal member of parliament for Vancouver-Burrard in the last parliament, said in an address Thursday night that the Ontario election results indicated that danger not only of the return to Canada "of the kind of Toryism we suffered from following the elections of 1911 and 1930, when Canada experienced the worst depression known in her history, but also a Tory party in Ottawa dominated by the Toronto interests in Ontario."

"Such a party would sell Canada down the Niagara river into the financial maw of Bay Street and down the St. Lawrence river into the financial powers of St. James Street.

"The CCF party in Canada, now practically obliterated, has achieved a division of the vote of the people which has given to the Tory interests control in Ontario through a minority vote. Let us hope that will not happen throughout the Dominion on Monday."

Advance Votes 117 on Friday

The tempo of voting at the advance polls in Edmonton West and East ridings stepped up Friday with a total of 117 votes being cast in both ridings.

In the Edmonton West riding 54 votes were cast to bring the total of ballots cast to 74 in the first two days of the advance poll. In Edmonton East there were 24 votes cast to bring the total to 43.

The advance poll in both ridings will be open from 2 to 10 p.m. on Saturday.

Nazi Field Marshal Put Under Arrest

AURICH, Germany, June 9.—(CP)—Field Marshal Johannes Blaskowitz, commander of the German 25th Army which capitulated to the Canadians in Holland on May 5, was arrested Wednesday at his headquarters in the German concentration area north of Aurich, it was disclosed today at 2nd Canadian Division headquarters. The charges were not immediately specified.

Issues Warning On Bilingualism

TORONTO, June 9.—(CP)—Rev. J. R. Mutchmor, secretary of the United Church Committee for Evangelism and Social Service for Canada, yesterday warned the final session of the Toronto conference of the United Church against the spread of bilingualism "from coast to coast."

Mr. Mutchmor told of the organization of two French radio stations in Western Canada, and said that soon similar stations might be in operation in French-speaking sections of Ontario and New Brunswick.

Rev. J. M. Finlay condemned the federal government's treatment of Japanese Canadians, terming it "A scar on the face of Canadian democracy."

Sign Agreement On Trieste Rule

LONDON, June 9.—(CP)—The Yugoslav News Agency announced today that a military agreement on the provisional administration of Trieste had been signed in Belgrade by American, British and Yugoslav representatives.

The Yugoslav foreign minister, Dr. Ivan Subasic, expressed satisfaction at the agreement, the broadcast dispatch said.

Premier Tito and the British and Americans have been at odds over occupancy of Trieste, Istria and the Slovene Littoral areas along the Adriatic sea.

Anticipating the signing of today's agreement, diplomatic sources close to the foreign office indicated yesterday it would bring about withdrawal of Tito's troops from Trieste.

There was no word on this point, however, in the Belgrade reports.

Mudders Get Chance In Kentucky Derby

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 9—(AP)—Old Sol was co-operating with the horses who like to run in the mud as he failed to break through an overcast sky and light showers started falling here early today. It seemed apparent that the 71st running of the Kentucky Derby would be an event for mudders as the weather man predicted the showers would likely continue most of the day. An inch and a half of rain fell in the 24 hours ended at noon yesterday.

Seek Lost Fliers

VANCOUVER, June 9.—(CP)—A 50-man ground party began at dawn today a trek into rugged mountain country southeast of Chilliwack, B.C., after a jumbled wireless message indicated the 11 RAF crewmen of a missing Liberator bomber might be in a nearly-inaccessible canyon with seven of them injured.

Raise Gold Price

Final Election Appeals to Come This Week-End

By Canadian Press Writer

OTTAWA, June 9. — (CP) — Final appeals for support at the polls Monday will be made this week-end as the wind-up of a month-long federal election campaign which has produced a hodge-podge of debate on issues involving both the war and the post-war periods and the domestic and international scenes.

The campaign has brought out a record number of candidates—954—from among whom a record number of registered voters—7,250,000—will select 245 members to represent them in the next parliament, the first session of which is expected to open in September.

954 CANDIDATES

The 954 candidates include 235 Liberals, 203 Progressive Conservatives, 205 CCF, 94 Social Credit, 68 Labor Progressive and 149 Independent and minority group standard-bearers.

At dissolution the Liberal government held 155 seats in the Commons, Progressive Conservatives 40, CCF 10, Social Credit 10 and others 18. There were 12 vacancies created through deaths and resignations since the last federal election in March, 1940.

Election broadcasts ended last night and week-end appeals will be made from the platform. Under the election act, broadcasting of election addresses is not permitted after Friday midnight.

Allies to Strip Germany Of Vital War Industries

ALLIED SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, Paris, June 9. — (AP) — Germany will be stripped of various industries to destroy her future war potential, through one of the principal functions of the reparations program, Ambassador Edwin W. Pauley, President Truman's personal representative on the Allied reparations commission, announced today.

Mr. Pauley said it was the view of the United States that any German industries of a war nature which could not be removed should be destroyed.

"We do not want another war to take place," he said, "and we are anxious to see that type of equipment taken out of Germany, even though we don't want it ourselves."

Says Many Tories Will Back King At Polls Monday

THE PAS, Man., June 9—(CP)—Senator T. A. Crerar, former resources minister in the King cabinet, said in an address here last night that "just as thousands of Liberals voted in Ontario for the Progressive Conservative party, for stabilization in government, so will thousands of Conservatives vote for Prime Minister King in Monday's federal general election".

Speaking in support of Lieut. George Weaver, Liberal candidate in Churchill, he said Ontario Premier George A. Drew's criticism of the King government's handling of Hong Kong was "an outrageous, monstrous distortion of the facts".

For Murder

Death Penalty Given Former City Resident

VANCOUVER, June 9—(CP)—Daniel Harrison, 29-year-old former Edmonton soldier, yesterday was convicted of a charge of murdering Clifford Lennox of Vancouver here a year ago, and was sentenced to hang Sept. 18.

Sentence was passed by Mr. Justice MacFarlane after a 12-man British Columbia assize court jury returned a verdict of guilty. They deliberated seven minutes.

The decision brought to a close the second trial of Harrison for the murder of Lennox. He had been sentenced to hang last Jan. 17 following his conviction of the charge but on appeal won a new trial which opened here last Monday.

WIFE IN COURT

Harrison stood erect when his sentence was pronounced. Behind him, his wife, mother of his three children, broke down and was supported by friends.

Mrs. Helen Lee, chief crown witness, and with whom he said he had been passionately in love, was not in the courtroom.

William A. Schultz, Harrison's counsel, said an appeal would be pressed.

Marshal Zhukov Says Fuehrer May Have Fled Ruined Capital

LONDON, June 9.—(CP)—An NBC broadcast from Moscow said today Marshal Zhukov believes that Adolf Hitler is hiding in Europe, possibly in Spain, and it is up to British and American troops to find him.

The Russian war leader also said Hitler had married Eva Braun two days before Berlin fell.

Correspondent Robert Magidoff quoted Zhukov as telling correspondents in Berlin:

Marshal Zhukov said that his troops found a number of corpses which might have been Hitler's, but he doubts it. Hitler probably waited until the last moment and then took off in a plane that was ostensibly held in constant readiness.

"'And I think,' said the Marshal, 'that Hitler is hiding somewhere in Europe, possibly with Gen. Franco. And now it's up to you British and Americans to find him.

"Diaries of the activities of the German general staff had fallen into the hands of the Russians and from them it was learned that Hitler married the German movie actress, Eva Braun."

Reuter News Agency carried a similar report quoting Zhukov.

STRICT REGIME

The broadcast continued: Marshal Zhukov told us he had established a strict occupation regime in Soviet-occupied Germany which forbids the men of the Red Army to fraternize with the population and that he will pursue a policy of economic disarmament of Germany so thorough as to make it impossible for Germany ever to rise again as a military power.

Favorite Wins English Derby

NEWMARKET, England, June 9.—(CP)—Dante, the favorite, won the sixth wartime running of the Derby today.

A record Newmarket crowd of about 30,000 watched the favorite come in. Midas was second and Court Martial third.

Dante is owned by Sir Eric Ohlsen.

• Chamossaire ran fourth, the same place he took in the 2,000 Guineas. Dante, ridden over the 1½-mile course by W. Nevett, won by two lengths.

The King and Queen and Princess Elizabeth saw the Derby, in which His Majesty had one entry, Rising Light.

Midas was entered by Lord Roseberry, whose ocean swell won last year. The show horse, Court Martial, came from the stables of Lord Astor.

Dante was a starting favorite at 100 to 30. The starting odds on Midas were six to one, while Court Martial's were 100 to 9. It was estimated that £10,000,000 was bet on the race.

958 Candidates Seeking Election

By DONALD E. SWIFT
Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin

MONTREAL, June 9.—(BUP)—When Canadians go to the polls on Monday they will have the greatest number of candidates in the history of the Dominion's 20 general elections from which to choose the 245 men or women who will make up the Dominion's next parliament.

No less than 958 candidates, entered under 18 different political banners, are seeking election throughout the country. In the last general election 665 candidates were listed from coast to coast.

Despite the fact that this represents nearly four candidates for each riding, no one political group has candidates in all seats across the Dominion. The Liberals come the closest with 232 standard bearers, the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation next with 206, and the Progressive Conservatives a close third with 204.

The Social Credit party stands fourth with 95 candidates in the running. Seventy-one candidates list themselves as independents, 68 as Labor Progressives, 36 Bloc Populaire, and 23 as Independent Liberals. The remaining political groups all have less than 10 representatives each. They are Independent Progressive Conservatives with eight; Democrats with five; Farmer Labor and Labor Socialist with two each; Independent Labor, Trades Union Liberal Labor, Independent CCF and People's CCF with one candidate apiece.

Manning Calls on Opposition Produce Plans for Security

Challenging opposing political parties to produce a post-war plan of economic security that will compare with supplementary purchasing power issued the Canadian people in the form of national dividends and terming the present old age pensions a "national disgrace", Premier Ernest Manning closed the Social Credit Party election campaign in an address to more than 800 persons in the Empire theatre Friday night.

Premier Manning termed Monday's election the most important since Confederation and said that Social Credit may well hold the balance of power in the next Parliament.

"If we have 25 seats in the next house we may well wield power equivalent to 150 seats under ordinary conditions," the premier said in urging his listeners to support Lt. Ellwood Mason and Patrick H. Ashby, the Social Credit candidates for Edmonton West and Edmonton East constituencies respectively. The candidates also addressed the meeting.

In vigorous fighting style, Premier Manning declared that the serious problems facing Canada cannot be solved by slinging mud. He said that in all fairness to the Liberal and Progressive Conservative candidates in the present campaign these refrained from smearing personalities and have kept the campaign clean.

CRITICIZED CCF CAMPAIGN

He said he could not say the same for the socialistic CCF, who had conducted a campaign of unequalled invective.

Make Charge Want Quebec Separate State

Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin

MONTREAL, Que., June 9—Election broadcasts were ended in Quebec and as the campaign swung to a close, Quebec ears were assaulted with arguments ranging from the removal of bridge tolls to the political future of this province.

French Canadians are being "stabbed in the back" by St. Jean Baptiste day patriots who talk of establishing Quebec as a separate state. It was vigorously charged by Liberals as still one more phase of a campaign which has had an apparently endless choice of subjects. Senator Gustave Lacasse of Tecumseh, Ontario, came over to give the Liberals a hand, and made the criticism of the "patriots".

Lacasse sounded a theme often heard in the campaign when he said that some groups of French Canadians are isolating Quebec when they refuse to co-operate with French Canadians in other provinces. This attitude, he says, only makes it more difficult elsewhere. His remark applies especially in the northern parts of Ontario, Saskatchewan, Alberta, British Columbia and New Brunswick, all of which have settlement areas of French Canadians.

QUEBEC PICTURE

The Quebec picture remained one of the hardest for political forecasters, aside from the Liberals who are counting on a majority of the province's 65 seats. Their estimates range from 40 to 55.

The Liberals have entered 60 candidates in all, and in addition some candidates have used a Liberal hyphenate.

The Conservatives are more cautious with their forecasts, for the simple reason that they have only entered 27 official candidates but are supporting 33 anti-Liberal candidates.

The CCF spokesmen declare frankly, in Quebec as in national headquarters, that their estimates have been upset by the Ontario result.

Time Is Required To Move Canucks Back to Dominion

LONDON, June 9.—(CP)—The London edition of The Maple Leaf, Canadian forces newspaper, in an editorial today asked the folks at home to calm down, saying, "it takes a lot of work to move an army and may be a little while yet before Johnny comes marching home."

"The folks on Main street seem to have the idea that the minute the war ended Aladdin would step from the pages of fiction to take a couple of passes at his lamp and transplant the Canadian Army on its individual doorsteps," the paper said.

"Conjecture on the return to Canada of the men who have been overseas a long time is heightened with the arrival of V-E Day. It is only natural that families should be excited and do a lot, maybe too much, of wishful thinking along that line."

PARIS, June 9.—(AP)—The United States Army disclosed today it plans to retain 600,000 German prisoners-of-war as laborers.

Plan to Return Laval to France

PARIS, June 9.—(AP)—Authorized sources disclosed today that Pierre Laval would be returned to France by French army plane either tonight or tomorrow. The plane left for Spain before dawn today.

Details of the return of Laval, former chief of the Vichy government, were still withheld to avert possible mob action. Laval likely will be flown directly to Fresnes, where he will be held in prison pending trial on a charge of treason.

Pressure brought on Spain by both the United States and Britain was understood to have been a factor in obtaining Laval's surrender to French authorities.

MADRID, June 9—(AP)—An informant who saw Pierre Laval in Montjuich fortress awaiting transportation to France said the former Vichy government chief had little hope of saving his life in a French court and was working against time to complete his memoirs.

destroyed 257,000 houses and rendered 1,000,000 persons homeless in Tokyo, the enemy broadcast said.

Fanning out over southern Honshu today, 100 to 150 Superfortresses dropped 700 to 1,000 tons of demolition bombs on the huge Kawanishi aircraft works at Osaka, the Kawasaki engine plant at Kobe and the Aichi company's Atsuta parts plant in Nagoya.

It marked the first time B-29's have hit three major Japanese cities in a single attack.

The raid also marked a return to precision bombing of key industrial targets after the blanket incendiary raids that left whole sections of Japan's largest cities in flames in recent weeks. For the first time since May 19, no fire bombs were carried.

THIRD NAGOYA RAID

Today's raid was the third since May 17 for Nagoya, the third in 10 days for Osaka and the second in six days for Kobe. It was the 70th major attack of the war by the 21st Bomber Command on Japan.

Pacific fleet headquarters announced that tactical fighters based on Okinawa shot down eight enemy aircraft over Kyushu in southern Japan Thursday.

Former Railroader Dies in Germany

Well known member of the CPR train crew staff, Sgt. Thomas E. Bates, Jr., Leamington apartments, died in Germany on May 28, according to word received here by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bates.

Sgt. Bates enlisted in 1940 with the Forestry Corps and went overseas the same year. He transferred to the artillery in England in 1941 and served in Italy and in Holland and Germany with the 111th Battery and the 7th Anti Tank Corps.

Prior to joining the Canadian forces he served for five years with the United States Navy in the Marine Corps, and was stationed at Honolulu and on the China coast. He was honorably discharged from the United States navy shortly prior to the outbreak of hostilities.

Zhukov Says Adolf Hitler May Be Alive

yond any hope of restoration," the correspondent said. "It is a sight ghastlier than Stalingrad."

By HENRY SHAPIRO
Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin

BERLIN, June 9.—(BUP)—Marshal Gregory Zhukov said today that he regards the fate of Adolf Hitler as a deep and still unsolved mystery.

Zhukov said that Soviet investigators have not yet discovered any corpse which can be positively identified as Hitler's and therefore that the possibility still existed that Hitler may have escaped.

NO IDENTIFICATION

"We have not discovered any corpse which may be definitely identified as Hitler's," Zhukov told correspondents from Moscow on their initial visit to Berlin. "Consequently we cannot make any statement about his death.

"He could have fled from Germany up to the last minute. We also do not know what has happened to Hitler's aide, Albert Bormann, who was in Berlin up to the end."

General Nikolai Bezarin, military commandant of Berlin, said that several bodies had been found, one of which could have been that of Hitler but that nothing definite had been established. He said that friends close to Hitler said he committed suicide but that Russian investigators had not been able to verify their accounts.

The ruins of Hitler's chancellery were visited by correspondents but did not reveal any clue. The floors are still littered with private papers, dossier and thousands of iron and silver crosses. The correspondents had a field day, rummaging through the room and collecting souvenirs from Hitler's desk.

PEOPLE PUZZLED

The people of Berlin appeared to be as much puzzled about the Hitler mystery as the Russians were. They said most of the suicide rumors came from the British radio even before Berlin's fall.

Bezarin said that many of the Berliners regularly listened to BBC during the war but that none of them dared admit it.

Paul Joseph Goebbels committed suicide Bezarin said. He said that he had made a personal investigation of the fate of Goebbels and that the bodies of Goebbels, his wife and two children were found in one of the underground bunkers of the chancellery. Goebbels, he said, poisoned his children and wife with potassium cyanide and then took his own life by shooting himself. (The death of Goebbels, however, has not been officially established.)

"As for Hitler", he said, "I leave it to you to find his body".

CHIEF JUSTICE HON. HORACE HARVEY

Tributes Paid Chief Justice Of Province

CALGARY, June 9—(CP)—Tributes to the Hon. Horace Harvey, chief justice of Alberta, who, at the age of 81, has spent more than half his life on the bench of Alberta, were voiced by S. H. McCuaig, KC, of Edmonton, Alta., vice-president of the Canadian Bar Association, and G. H. Steer, KC, Edmonton, president of the Law Society of Alberta, at a luncheon here yesterday following the opening of a conference of High Court judges.

"He is a great judge," Mr. McCuaig declared. "His career is a model for those who seek distinction in public life. Not only a great judge, he is a public-spirited citizen, active in many organizations designed to improve the lot of his fellowmen."

Mr. McCuaig said Chief Justice Harvey's integrity, industry, sense of justice and sense of public duty had won him the high esteem of the public and fellow judges and members of the bar throughout the Dominion.

The fall of Germany, he said, had taught the lesson that a society which placed small value on human life, justice and political liberty, must fail. The free and independent justice dispensed by Canadian judges was of the utmost value to the people of this country.

Mr. Steer declared that Chief Justice Harvey had filled a great place in the public life of Alberta. It was a great satisfaction to his friends to know that he had brought fame and honor to this province.

Drew Declares 12 Ont. Seats Liberal Limit

TORONTO, June 9.—(CP)—Premier George Drew, whose Progressive Conservative party swept the Ontario provincial election Monday, said last night that any federal party which did not carry Ontario would not carry the rest of the Dominion election.

There was "not a chance in the world" that Prime Minister Mackenzie King would have a sufficient number of men elected to form a government, said Premier Drew, who introduced John Bracken, national Progressive Conservative leader, at a political rally in jam-packed Massey hall.

Mr. King would not win more than 12 seats in Ontario and not more than 20 in Quebec. Alberta had a Social Credit government and Saskatchewan had a CCF government.

NO CHANCE FOR KING

"And with what has been happening in British Columbia and Manitoba there isn't a chance in the world of Mr. King getting enough seats to form a government."

Mr. Bracken and the Progressive Conservative party were going to win the federal election, he said.

ECONOMIC EXPANSION DISCUSSED BY BRACKEN

TORONTO, June 9.—(CP)—Realization of the objective of full employment in the post-war years will come only as the result of an expanding economy which can be brought about by the encouragement of initiative and enterprise on the part of all, John Bracken, national Progressive Conservative leader, said last night.

Any program for an expanding economy would have to be accompanied by the relaxation, as quickly as practicable, of wartime controls, and by guarantees against threats of confiscation or throttling taxation, said Mr. Bracken in a speech at a political rally here.

MUST GUARANTEE RIGHTS

Mr. Bracken said that to be successful a program for an expanding economy must be accompanied by a guarantee the rights of private property, the right of individuals to own their homes and farms, and the right to develop their own business enterprises, without threat of confiscation and without threat of throttling taxation.

If the people of Canada were to live in happiness, there must be freedom from fear of economic reverses and there must be adequate protection against unemployment, sickness, accident and old age.

Where social services were provincially administered, as most of them were, it must be the duty of the federal government to provide financial aid to ensure reasonable stands of social security for all Canadians.

That is the policy to which this party is committed," he said. "We propose to avoid duplication of Dominion and provincial services in the same field of activity."

LAFF-A-DAY—"You think you have a flat tire—that makes us even!"

Election Day is another "D-DAY" For Canada

JUST ONE YEAR AGO this June the fate of Christian civilization hung in the balance for a few hours, when the vast allied armada invaded the Coast of Normandy. It was the greatest gamble in history, with millions of lives and the fate of 40 nations at stake.

And now, on Monday, almost one year to the day, Canadians will go to the polls to decide, with ballots instead of bullets, whether or not Canada is to continue under its present North American form of Democracy, or whether it is to embrace a European system of "State Socialism" as proposed by the C.C.F.

So, in essence, Monday is another "D-Day" for Canada — a day that will decide the destiny of this nation for years, if not for generations. Hence, it constitutes a great challenge to every voter — male or female. A challenge as to whether or not we will deliberately forfeit the individual freedom which our boys have fought so desperately to preserve.

Good-bye Freedom?

It is not merely a question of voting for or against a political party. We will be voting for or against a new system of living — a foreign brain-child known as "State Socialism." The group of thinkers," or, as they term themselves, the "Professional Social Students," who are sponsoring the C.C.F. Socialist Program are asking us to let them take over control, not only of the Government of Canada but of our everyday lives.

They propose to "plan" everything for us — to control all production and distribution. That is, they will decide what is to be made and by whom — what is to be grown and by whom — the quantities — the styles — the distribution — the selling prices and wages. All these and hundreds of other controls and regulations will become a permanent part of our existence, as decided by the C.C.F. politicians and administered by a vast army of Government agents.

Animals In A Zoo!

Under any such system we would become like animals in a zoo. We would lose our individual freedom just as completely as though we had lost the war! Not one Canadian in one hundred would knowingly vote for any such program, but not many Canadians realize that the C.C.F. platform involves any such scheme, or else they do not believe that the C.C.F. would actually attempt to carry it out.

That is where we may fool ourselves because the C.C.F. National Convention recently went on record that whether it takes five or fifteen years they do intend to put into effect their complete Socialist program.

So, if you prize your individual freedom, be sure to vote on election day against the C.C.F. candidate in your riding, because every such candidate is positively committed to the complete C.C.F. Program of State Socialism. If C.C.F. candidates tell you they are not so committed, they are either misinformed or are misrepresenting the facts, because that is the basic plank in their platform, and any C.C.F. candidate who fails to support their policies is subject to "recall" and is dropped from the party. So! don't fool with that Social dynamite. Get out and vote against the C.C.F. and let the Social Students realize once and for all that Canadians want none of their European and old country nonsense.

its lack of a program for the future.

He summarized the government's program as follows:

1. Useful employment for all who are willing to work.

2. Standards of nutrition and housing adequate to ensure the health of the whole population.

3. Social insurance against privations resulting from unemployment, from accident, from the death of the bread-winner, from ill-health and from old age.

4. For the children of the Dominion a "closer approach to equality of opportunity in the battle of life."

"These objectives, of course, require to be set in the framework of Canada's position in the world. Full employment and social security would mean little in a world living constantly in the shadow of impending war.

NATIONAL SECURITY

"Let me add, therefore, as another of our post-war objectives: National security through international co-operation."

Mr. King said the government's program had been outlined many times but one aspect had not received sufficient attention, and he went on:

"The Progressive Conservative party, throughout this campaign, has loudly proclaimed that it is the party of private enterprise, of capitalism; the CCF has equally loudly proclaimed that it is a party of public ownership, of socialism. The Liberal party has never accepted extreme positions."

He turned to Mr. Bracken about whom, he said, he had not felt it necessary to say much thus far in the campaign.

"Do you realize," he asked, "that John Bracken, the man whose career is described in modest terms by the publicity bureau of his party as 'a political career without parallel in the Empire during this century,' and who is himself described as 'the most continuously successful leader the Empire has produced in this century,' became leader of the Progressive Conservative party of Canada in 1942?

"Do you realize that, before that time, Mr. Bracken had never been a member of the parliament of Canada; and that, since that time, he has avoided any and every opportunity to enter the House of Commons?

SHOULD ABOLISH COMMONS

"If this is to be the new type of leadership in national affairs, it would be much better quite openly and at once to abolish parliament altogether instead of having our parliamentary institutions sabotaged by those who prefer invisible government by special interests.

"The people would then come to see clearly what has actually been designed by the men who have been financing all the publicity and propaganda we have had to endure over the past two and a half years concerning Bracken the man,' Bracken the farmer, Bracken the worker, Bracken the progressive, Bracken the administrator, Bracken the great Progressive-Conservative.

"If Mr. Bracken had possessed a small part of the peerless qualities attributed to him he would surely have demonstrated some of them by leading his party in the House of Commons. He would surely have been prepared to employ his many statesmanlike qualities in co-operating with others in parliament to make Canada's war effort as effective as possible."

sorts to the use of poison gas. I view the slanderous statements made by our CCF opponents in the same light," the speaker said.

Hotly denying the charges levelled by the CCF that the Alberta government has sold out to the 50 big shots and have gone over to the Tories, Mr. Manning reviewed in detail the agreement reached recently with the bondholders on the refunding of Alberta's public debt, and declared that this province will pay the lowest interest rate on its public debt of any province in Canada at 3.4 per cent.

The sister province of Saskatchewan under a CCF government will pay the highest of any province at an interest rate of 4.06 per cent, Premier Manning declared.

While the government had been careful to make clear it would never repudiate its debts it had been necessary through circumstances to cut the interest rate on the public debt by 50 per cent nine years ago. By this measure the people of Alberta had been saved $25,000,000.

Under the present refunding agreement the province was saving $17,000,000 in interest charges at a cost of just $8,000,000 and by other terms of the agreement further savings will be made that will leave the province $17,000,000 to the good at the lowest interest rate of any province, Mr. Manning said.

FOUGHT MONOPOLIES

Mr. Manning said it is a matter of "world record" that Alberta has fought the financial monopolists throughout 10 years.

"And during all that time those who slander us today were our most bitter opponents," the speaker declared.

Mr. Manning referred to John Bracken, leader of the Progressive Conservative party, as "one of the most promising politicians in Canada." He makes new promises each night.

As for Prime Minister King, Premier Manning said:

"Now there's one man in Canada I'd like to help and I mean out."

OLD AGE PENSIONS

Referring to old age pensions, Mr. Manning said:

"Pensions in Canada are a disgrace because the only way we can pay the very inadequate pensions we now pay is by taxing others more.

"Under the Social Credit plan pensions would be no problem at all as they would be paid out of a created pool of debt free purchasing power, which would supplement the ordinary purchasing power. Actually we believe the best way to pay pensions would be in the form of direct national dividends.

The premier waxed somewhat sarcastic when he referred to the Liberal government's family allowance or "baby bonus" plan to increase purchasing power but credited the federal administration with belatedly admitting in paying the bonuses the correctness of the Social Credit theory that the ordinary national income is far from sufficient to provide Canadians with security.

Stating that an average Canadian family would have three children, Mr. Manning said that at $8 a child this amounts to $24 in supplementary income for each family.

"They called us funny names in Alberta when we said it was possible to pay each person a dividend of $25 a month. At $24 the Liberal government comes pretty close to it but they do not dare to call the payments dividends because that would be Social Credit," the speaker said amid laughter.

WON'T RAISE BUYING POWER

The present plan would not increase overall purchasing power of the Canadian people one bit because it just means paying $250,000,000 a year to Canadian families and increasing taxation by exactly the same amount.

"And yet a Liberal speaker has called the family allowances the greatest social legislation since Confederation."

The government of Canada faces the serious problem of providing employment for more than 2,000,000 persons in the next two years.

Government spokesmen are right when they say Canada will never return to conditions of the hungry thirties because the country never really left those conditions. The destructive power of modern war has brought Canadians full employment either in the services or in war plants, nothing that any government has been responsible for.

"I get very tired of hearing about maintaining full employment. If the war plants were all converted tomorrow to the production of civilian goods we could make all the things we could possibly consume under our present system without employing a solitary one of the 750,000 now in the armed services," the premier said.

Stating it was the same old problem of a chronic lack of purchasing power, Mr. Manning said that "in this marvelous machine age we will have to abandon forever our concept of making a job a permit to live."

How that idea worked out in the bitter thirties with 10 men competing for each job is something that many people seem to have forgotten. There must be supplementary purchasing power placed in the hands of the people so that they can buy what they need regardless of jobs, Mr. Manning said. "The Social Credit plan is to bonus all consumers".

TWO REQUISITES

Mr. Manning said the only requisites in the physical sense are resources and skilled workmen. These Alberta has in a superabundance. Therefore it comes back again to the lack of purchasing power.

Foreign trade will never put that purchasing power in the hands of Canadians either, the speaker contended.

"One thing the Liberals have done well. They have preserved every feature of the diabolical system that produced the hungry thirties. There are really just two parties in the field in this election, the social debtors and the Social Creditors because no other party has any solution but the creation of more debt".

The premier said he would rejoice in the task of drawing up the first Social Credit budget when the full amount of money required would always be available.

Both Mr. Ashby and Lt. Mason were loudly applauded at the conclusion of brief, vigorous addresses.

N. B. James, MLA for Edmonton, was chairman.

Four New Combat Planes Ready for Japan Fight

LONDON, June 9.—(Reuters)—Four new types of British aircraft—one a jet-propelled fighter with a speed of more than 500 miles an hour—came off the secret list last night.

A new four-engined bomber, developed from the Lancaster, will be known as the Lincoln. It will carry the heaviest bombs over a range considerably in excess of the Lancaster and a greater speed. The Lincoln, powered by Rolls-Royce Merlin engines, will not only be manufactured in Britain, but also in Canada and Australia.

The modified Lancaster carried an 11-ton volcano bomb 300 miles into northern Germany during the last great air offensive to smash Nazi communications. The Lincoln presumably will be used in attacks on Japan.

The jet—a single-seat fighter to be known as the Vampire, powered by a single gas turbine engine, has been designed and is being built by the De Haviland company, a ministry of aircraft production statement said.

TWIN-ENGINED FIGHTER

A second machine designed by the De Haviland company is a twin-engined fighter—a scaled-down version of the Mosquito. It will be known as the Hornet, will be powered by Rolls-Royce Merlin engines and has a top speed of more than 470 miles per hour.

Vickers Armstrong are the builders of the Spiteful, a single seater, single-engined fighter developed from the world famous Spitfire. It will be powered by a Rolls-Royce Griffin engine with a top speed of more than 460 miles per hour.

Munitions Minister Howe announced at the last session of parliament that the new Lincoln bomber would be produced at the government-owned Victory Aircraft plant at Malton, Ont. The Malton plant, which has been producing Lancasters, will continue with its Lancaster production while turning over to Lincolns.

Crack French Corps Reported In Revolt Near Syrian City

BEYROUTH, June 9.—(Reuters)—An unconfirmed report yesterday said troops of the French Camel Corps (Meharistes) revolted at Dumeir, about 30 miles northeast of Damascus, Friday and killed six French officers.

While the exact reason for the revolt is not known, it has been apparent for some time that there is a certain amount of restlessness in the French Camel Corps, the elite French military formation in Syria which is understood to number about 3,000 men.

The troops were recruited locally.

RCAF Squadron Arrives After Ocean Flight

DARTMOUTH, N.S., June 9—(CP)—As the big Lancaster bomber "O for Oboe" circled over the Dartmouth airport and dropped down on the sun-bathed runway at 5:05 p.m. EDT, last night, the RCAF Ghost squadron formally marked the end of the weather-delayed flight that started in Middleton St. George, England, May 31.

O for Oboe was followed by three other bombers of the squadron, Z for Zombie, L for Lankie and A for Able. Nine others of the squadron flew on to the RCAF field at Yarmouth where they will be stationed.

Children Cleared Criminal Count After Baby Killed

PHILADELPHIA, June 9.—(AP)—Judge Charles L. Brown in Juvenile Court yesterday cleared Irene Jones, 15, and her sister, Janet, 11, of criminal intent in taking three-months-old Thomas V. Judge Brown ordered the girls returned to the house of detention until a home could be found for them and directed that charges of abduction and theft of a carriage be held in abeyance.

in Moscow under plans laid down at the Yalta conference.

DEFINITE PROGRAM

The envoy indicated that the American delegation, which just completed a lengthy survey in the American-occupied zone of Germany, was going to Moscow with a definite program in mind, but virtually in the dark as to the desires of Russia and Britain, the only other powers to be represented at the initial meeting.

He said there had been no exchange of views.

Mr. Pauley and 18 to 20 others of the 35-man delegation will leave Monday for Moscow, while the remainder, all technical representatives, will continue studying the possibilities of reparations in Germany.

Speaking strictly as an American representative and principally on a basis of preliminary observations made in Germany during the last few weeks, Mr. Pauley told correspondents that the United States realized mistakes were made in reparations after the First Great War and "we don't intend to make the same ones this time."

BASIS FOR REPARATIONS

Damage to property and cost of effort and energy in defeating the enemy form the principal basis for reparations, he said.

"It would be futile for us to seek repayment for the total cost of our war effort," he said. "Both money and lives are gone."

But he declared the United States would assert a claim, although "as to what it will be I am not prepared to say."

162 MILLION V-DOLLARS
LIFE INSURANCE RESERVES
That's the amount that was subscribed by the life insurance companies in Canada for their policyholders to the Eighth Victory Loan. It raised to almost 1,300 million dollars the total of such bonds bought by those companies since 1939.
More than one and a quarter billion dollars!
That's an immense sum of money—an average of $325.00 for every policyholder in Canada! But it's still only a part of the fund required by the companies as life insurance reserves, for one sole purpose.
That fund totals more than two billion dollars—an average of $500.00 for each policyholder. And its sole purpose is to pay to the four million policyholders in Canada, or their beneficiaries, the amounts which will eventually be due to them under their policies amounting to nine billion dollars.
It is necessary that life insurance reserves keep pace with life insurance obligations to policyholders. They are determined mathematically so that the present reserve fund, together with future premiums and investment earnings, will be sufficient to take care of those obligations.
The minimum reserves which must be held are fixed by the laws of Canada and constitute about 95% of the total reserves. The remaining 5% consists of extra reserves held by the companies as additional protection against contingencies. The basis upon which they are determined is fully set out in the companies' government returns.
Until it is needed for payments to policyholders, the reserve fund is growing in the service of the country in socially useful investments.
It is good citizenship to own LIFE INSURANCE

The Choice on Monday

On Monday the electors are to decide whether or not Canada is to have a post-war administration supported by a clear majority in parliament. Unless they decide for majority government the country will be in for:

1. Government by the largest group in parliament, as and so long as the other groups permit;

2. Government by a combination of parliamentary groups—which groups have during the campaign emphasized their complete disagreement as to policies and as to each other's capacities;

3. A parliament so evenly split into groups that no Government could live, and another election would be necessary to bring order out of the chaos.

None of these three alternatives is desirable. A minority Government would be hobbled. A coalition Government would pull in three directions and therefore move in none. A stalled parliament would be helpless, and another election would be required to break the deadlock.

Any of these three alternatives would not, and could not, give the kind of government Canadians want, and the kind they will have to have if we are to pass from war to peace as successfully and as satisfactorily as we passed from peace to war. Canada will need for the next four or five year term a Government with a definite reconstruction policy and with a parliamentary majority which will enable it to carry through with its program. Even a well-framed policy would be useless without a majority to carry it into effect; otherwise the opposing groups would block and hamper it. A majority without such a policy would be equally hopeless: a mob never accomplishes anything worth while, on the street or in parliament.

If we are to have a Government that can govern, the "paper" choices before the electors are three. They might return a majority of Liberal candidates, or of Conservative candidates, or of CCF nominees.

But in reality there is only one way in which the voters can get for themselves a Government with a parliamentary majority strong enough to make its policies effective. That is by returning 124 or more Liberal members to the new parliament. Substantially more than that number will be needed to ensure stability.

Look at the chances of the other two parties. The Conservatives claim that they will elect 50 candidates in Ontario. They have only 27 candidates running in Quebec. If they elected the whole 50 in Ontario and the entire 27 in Quebec—neither of which they are at all likely to do—Mr. Bracken would still need 47 supporters elected in other provinces to give him the smallest possible over-all majority in parliament — a majority of one with the Speaker in the chair. There is no possible chance that he can get them.

The CCF is not in the running for a parliamentary majority. At best it can only hope to elect a relatively small group. Its leaders have never predicted that they would get more than a minority. The debacle in Ontario plainly shows that the minority will be a small one.

The voter who wants the business of the country managed and directed through the difficult post-war years by a Government strong enough to carry its policies and plans into effect should therefore vote for the Liberal candidate in his constituency. That is, in fact, the only way by which he can vote for what he wants.

The Government is entitled to a declaration of voter-confidence on its merits. It has given leadership and direction in a war effort no one thought possible when the war began. Its post-war plans—the treatment provided for veterans, its trade-expansion policy, its social reform program—are comprehensive, clear-cut, practical. These are the lines along which the public policy will have to be directed if the Dominion is to make its way successfully through the difficult post-war years to a peace-footing in which Canadians will enjoy a higher average standard of living than has ever before existed.

By contrast, the Conservative policy is made up of generalities and uncertainties—with a sprinkling of inconsistencies. Nobody knows exactly where the party stands in the matter of tariffs and trade. Its spokesmen have talked both ways on the family allowances question. They are shouting "conscription" in the English-speaking provinces while the party funds and the party organization are supporting anti-conscription, anti-war, anti-British, isolationist candidates in Quebec.

The C.C.F. policy of course is socialism and nothing but socialism.

These, with all deference, are not policies adapted to the realities which confront the nation in the complicated after-war conditions. As against them, the program of the Government deserves support—not because it is a Liberal program, but because it is the best of the lot.

For these reasons the voter who votes Liberal at this time will be making a wise choice. He will be doing his bit to give the country a stable administration, with a plain and progressive policy, supported and made effective by a working majority in parliament.

Drew and Houde

Premier George Drew of Ontario, after winning a notable victory with the acknowledged support of many Liberals, immediately left Toronto by plane on a "smear the Liberals" campaign in Western Canada.

Speaking in Winnipeg, he said "Hong Kong is the most shameful and shameless episode in Canadian history." He laid the blame on Prime Minister Mackenzie King.

The fact that Great Britain, as well as Canada, was caught short at Hong Kong means nothing to the notorious double-crosser Mr. Drew. The tragedies of Singapore, Manila and Pearl Harbor, with the loss of the United States Pacific Fleet, could just as well have been blamed on Mackenzie King as Canada's tragic loss at Hong Kong.

In Vancouver, Premier Drew stooped to the lowest of Mayor Houde's style, by referring to the Hon. Ian Mackenzie, Minister of Veterans Affairs, as a "deliberate and contemptible liar".

This is the same Premier Drew who bitterly denounced Family Allowances when that great social measure was introduced by Prime Minister Mackenzie King, in the House of Commons. He said "Ontario will not stand for paying for the big families in Quebec". At the same time he was denouncing the Prime Minister for not giving Ontario more whisky.

The truth is that Ontario does not pay a single penny of Family Allowances in any other province in Canada.

But the fact that taxes are collected at the Head Offices in Toronto and Montreal of great financial and commercial corporations whose revenues are collected from every man, woman and child living anywhere in Canada, doesn't mean a thing to mud-slinger Drew.

What a shocking disgrace to Canada to have politics conducted on the Drew and Houde basis.

Potatoes have been bought at 10 cents a bushel recently. They retail generally at 30 cents.

From the prominence given by government organs to the speech of Dr. Montague, secretary of state, delivered near the close of the tariff debate in Parliament, there would appear to be some truth in the humor of an attempt by a wing of the cabinet to replace Premier Bowell by Montague. Certainly the speech, which was merely a string of chestnuts, was not boomed on account of its merits as a political argument.

Test Polls Silly and Dangerous

Gallup Poll Nonsense Is Both Undependable and Unscientific

By HAROLD L. WEIR

That strange stepchild of self-conscious public opinion, the Gallup poll, has been hauled out into the limelight to do service as an election campaign weapon.

One would have thought that the high pretensions and low performance of this straw vote stunt would have worn pretty thin by this time and that, as a campaign gun, the public would have realized that it was definitely not loaded.

Harold L. Weir

But, willy-nilly, its ponderous and tricky wheels have been set in motion again. And gravely and pontifically, the operators of this quaint device enlighten the Canadian public with the solemn news that in Monday's election support will be accorded to the political parties in precisely this ratio:

Liberals	40%
Progressive Conservatives	27%
C.C.F.	19%
Bloc Populaire	5%
Others	9%

Now, I have no quarrel with these figures, either factually or inferentially, so long as they are regarded as a guess. One man's guess is as good as another's, and this division may turn out to be quite correct for all I know.

But I do quarrel with all this portentous nonsense when it makes a pretence to scientific authority because the Gallup poll knows no more about the results of Monday's election than I do. And I wouldn't bet a thin dime on it, although I may have my own opinions.

I maintain, therefore, that these attempts to forecast public opinion are mischievous and dangerous and silly because, the way these things are done, the operators put themselves in the same class as the old-fashioned weather prophets who used to foretell storms by the throbbing of their bunions.

This particular poll is peculiarly and specially absurd because, admittedly, it has not taken into account or tested the vote of the armed services.

This is important because the armed services vote will total between 350,000 and 400,000 ballots which is an average of about 1,500 for each constituency—a volume of votes that could easily swing a decision.

And even in this point, the intrinsic dishonesty of the system is manifest.

It doesn't require much of a mathematician to discover that no problem can come very close to accuracy without the inclusion of all the factors.

Yet this poll is handed out with all the solemnity of a divine revelation.

Again, neither this nor any other Gallup poll is a poll at all in the sense that it is based on the recorded opinion of a substantial number of electors or even an average group of electors.

It is a loose test made by a few unknown persons loosely interviewing an unknown number of other unknown persons, not in average localities, but in carefully selected localities.

The system is unscientific and utterly undependable. It can be made to prove anything.

And that, of course, brings us to the crux of the whole matter which is that the Gallup polls are not only unscientific and undependable, but may be thoroughly dishonest.

For who are the scrutineers in this comic opera imitation of an election?

Voting in a democratic community is a secret and sacred business. It is surrounded by every precaution and every safeguard. Returning officers and scrutineers are men and women of known probity. Every possible check is made to guarantee accuracy.

But in a Gallup poll, the operators are unknown. No one checks the returns. No one audits them. The results are computed by persons who are unknown and responsible to nobody except the commercial concern which is hired by interested parties to make the alleged survey.

Now it must be clear that there is a very real danger here.

I have no quarrel with the Gallup poll organization. Its members may be solid and reputable citizens. I have never heard anything to the contrary.

But in principle the thing is dynamite, because if the Gallup poll people can get away with this parade of fiction disguised as fact, there is nothing to stop totally unscrupulous men from deliberately using these polls to promote a party or policy regardless of its merits.

Many people, notoriously, like to be on the winning side. They hate to lose their votes. It is obvious that a straw vote which is made to show that a certain party has all the best chances will drum up a great following for that party for that very reason.

There are so many sinister possibilities in the situation that even the best of these test polls smell a little.

That these polls are decidedly unreliable was shown in the Grey North by-election. If Grey North had voted according to the Gallup poll, the Liberals would have received some 6,900 votes, the Progressive Conservatives 5,500 and the CCF 3,900.

Actually the Liberals received 6,099 votes, the CCF 3,136 and the Conservatives 7,338.

The Gallup poll was 800 votes wrong in the case of the Liberals, 750 votes wrong in the case of the CCF and 1,400 votes wrong in the case of the Progressive Conservatives.

In the face of this clumsy and notable error in one constituency, how can the organization pretend, in seriousness, to forecast what is going to happen in 245?

Straw votes have a bad history.

The Literary Digest, as you will remember, forfeited its journalistic life over test poll monkeyshines.

And Dr. George Gallup himself admitted under oath before a congressional enquiry that he had thought it advisable to color up Dewey's showing in the last American presidential election.

These polls create too many opportunities for dishonest propagandists. They constitute a risk that no democracy should take. They should be positively prohibited by law.

Pacific Service

Editor, Bulletin: It is understood there are about 4,000 deserters at large in Canada, 2,400 of whom hail from Quebec. Why have not these skulkers been apprehended?

The government does not want them caught or attention drawn to a very black mark on Canada's war record. Every effort should be made to make certain these deserters go and do their duty in the Pacific War. Mr. King says "only those who wish to go will be sent to the Pacific," this obviously a vote-catcher addressed to Quebec.

The Canadian people should demand these deserters and all young home defence troops are sent to the Pacific before any soldier who has fought in Europe is called upon.

Canada and Empire

Editor, Bulletin: As a native Canadian and an ex-serviceman from the last war allow me to reply to Harold Weir's article of June 5 headed, "Solidity of British Empire World's Brightest Hope." He obviously wants the people to believe his interpretation of history that the British cause and what it stands for is a great benign, altruistic movement for the benefit of humanity.

Let us briefly examine the main points in history as to how the British Empire was built up. Canada was twice taken from the French by force. They were the first settlers in this country, Christianized the Indians and lived with them as neighbors. India was taken by force and is still held in subjection. South Africa was taken by force, and even Canada to whom the Boers had never done any wrong sent a fighting expedition to help take their country away from them. The Boers were the first settlers of South Africa and only after gold and diamonds were discovered there, did the greedy British capitalist get interested and howled for British protection. Other countries such as Egypt, Saudi Arabia, Iraq and Iran have been under British domination for years because of fear of British might.

The reader may ask what could be the motive of all this and the only answer is capitalistic greed for the exploitation of resources.

The British first entered Canada by way of Hudson Bay. To settle the ice and snow regions of the north? I leave this to the intelligence of the reader. The Hudson's Bay Co. was given a charter of unlimited trade and exploitation and presented with enormous tracts of land which to this day are a hindrance to free settlement in western Canada.

The French Canadian has obviously interpreted the history of Canada and Empire in its true aspect and that is why he can defiantly take the stand against conscription for overseas service and make the courageous demand for complete autonomy for Canada with a distinct national flag and anthem. The imperialist and capitalist press of Canada tries to make the people believe that we already have independence. It would be ridiculous for the king of Canada to be at peace while the king of England is at war. Is there any government of a sovereign nation in the world today which uses the flag and anthem of another sovereign nation the way Canada does? The supreme authority and veto power still remains with the British government.

It is not fair to other nations that Canada exercise a separate voice in world affairs while still a member of the British Empire. It is this confusing set-up of Empire commonwealth or what else which has created suspicion in Russia and established their demand for extra votes at the San Francisco conference, to equalize or outdo the English speaking block.

War Criminals

Editor, Bulletin: The effusive welcome extended to Goering by American officers and reports that other German generals are sumptuously wined and dined has given new stimulus to the advocates of appeasement.

These gentry blithely discover that existing international conventions provide no legal sanction for punishment of enemy criminals such as have committed atrocities under orders of a higher officer. They present this as a barrier for holding trials of the murderers. But surely the fact that all Europe is one vast graveyard of Nazi victims and millions of peaceful civilians have been savagely tortured places these sadists ultra vires of all existing statutes.

To assure a fair trial these Nazis should be returned to the scenes of their crimes where the question of guilt could be decided by citizens who winessed the atrocities. To allow the sophistries of squabbling legal theorists to free these Nazi butchers because of loopholes in the international code, would indeed be a serious blow to democratic humanity.

The war-monger "peace" policy of the appeasers is contrary to the cause of human progress and must be effectively blocked now so there can be no re-emergence of Fascist aggression.

Guns or Stockings?

Editor, Bulletin: "24,000,000 pairs stockings, judge him on his record", state a Progressive - Conservative sponsored advertisement. Well we might applaud the Honorable Mr. James A. MacKinnon, minister of trade and commerce, for these magnificent war-time sales which have added so considerably to the vital task of supplying our fighting men with the sinews of war.

Like the old soldier, we women love to grumble, but I doubt very much if any Canadian women have suffered real hardship from the scarcity of stockings. I believe that they, like myself, will resent keenly the implication obviously intended in the aspersions cast upon Mr. MacKinnon.

Veterans' Income Tax

Editor, Bulletin: Is there any reason why a man discharged from the service could not be exempt from paying income tax for six months after his discharge?

Many of these men back from overseas had not been able to save much money except to buy a few Victory Bonds and these they had to cash to get settled to the life of a civilian.

They have to compete against men who have been in a job with good pay for the duration of the war. How can they get started if their income tax comes to $20 or $30 per month, especially a single man?

These veterans are not against income tax but would like to have all they earn for at least six months.

Divorce Evils

Editor, Bulletin: In your issue of May 26, "Mother," asking for easier divorce, suggests breaking up unhappy homes rather than avoiding them. To make divorce easier is merely adding to the chaotic muddle of present-day living.

The child allowance act is distasteful to many and may be embryonic of sadness rather than gladness to diligent, sane parents seeing what the present rush of money has done and is doing. "Put a beggar on horseback and he will ride to the devil."

No person worthy of that honor wish for assistance in raising their offspring other than a salary compatible with cost of living decently. Given this, a domesticated mother can make a home a garden of roses for her husband and children who will thank her, and we should foster this sacred duty not by money for nothing methods and relaxing the tie that binds.

Shoddy movies, radio hash, unbridled behavior and a lack of that kindly, uplifting spirit characteristic of good breeding is worth pondering over to avoid evil and its consequences.

Disturbance

Editor, Bulletin: Residents of the west end, particularly those who arise between 7:00 and 7:30 a.m., certainly do not require alarm clocks. Daily about this time engineers of trains arriving and departing take fiendish glee in trying to blow the houses back from the right of way with their sirens.

No doubt one engineer is proud that the business has held together long enough to get him home or is announcing that it is time for the wife to arise and shine or the house will be huffed and puffed to pieces. The other engineers must have jealous natures or are, to say the least, over conscientious. They wish no one to be overlooked by the first blasts and can be pictured happily hauling the cord in haphazard fashion a long way from the crossings.

Strangely enough there is little traffic at 107, 111 or 118 avenues at this hour so we presume they jubilantly blow to make some. The departing engineers, if they have time to devote themselves to this occupation between blowing the belching bugle seem happy at leaving our city.

We, too, are pleased with their departure and only wish they would not come back. All this is pretty tough on us poor innocents who take our sleep as we find it. Is there no justice? Could these men be tortured or promoted or even elected to parliament before the whole community is deafened?

Promises

Editor, Bulletin: I was rather amused at Mr. Bracken's Winnipeg speech as headlined: "Bracken Wants King Judged on Past Record, Not Pledges."

I wonder if Mr. Bracken thinks that we Canadians suffer from loss of memory. Let us look at the past record of the Bennett government.

Can we ever forget the hungry thirties, the rampant poverty, the twenty cents a day work camps and the infamous Bennett buggy? We heard the then premier of Canada say over the radio how he was going to blast his way into the world's markets, and instead we saw farm homes blasted into the laps of the mortgage companies. We saw two-bit wheat and we saw thousands of acres sown in the spirit of optimism and never reaped because the low price of that wheaet would not pay for the reaping. We saw farmers—the most important people of Western Canada—bowed down by debts and living in the abyss of poverty, the like of which this country had never before witnessed. Wheat growers with not the price of a loaf of bread, or the price to have that wheat ground.

We saw veterans of the last war working in camps for twenty cents a day; the Winterburn ranges, just outside this city, were built on twenty cents a day labor. We saw the Liberal government come into power in 1935 and increase the wages in these camps to 45c an hour.

Under Conservatism we had high tariffs and no foreign trade to speak of. Blasting one's way into the markets of the world may sound very nice on a political campaigning platform, but any trade mission going to other nations with the political gun-powder as the bargaining agent is doomed to failure. The result of that "blasting" was poverty unparalleled.

Mr. Bracken accuses Mr. King of evading the domestic and international [illegible] around [illegible] think of the time when, under Conservatism, our domestic problems were so great and heavy that out of them were spawned riots and hunger matches, soup kitchens and long lines of hungry men, thousands of unemployed beating their way from coast to coast in the vain search for work.

And yet, Mr. Bennett was in power. Why? Because he said that he would put every Canadian on his feet, and the Canadians believing his platform promises voted him in. Have the Conservative policies of those days changed so much that one feels they can put their economic destinies into their hands again?

The word "Progressive" has been added to the Conservative party. I often wonder why. In my humble opinion it is there purely for the purpose of catching the sadly needed votes.

Hints for Every Housewife

With Time and Energy at A Premium These Days, Use Short-Cuts

By MARY ALICE QUAYNE

With gardening as well as the usual household routine taking so much of your time and energy, I thought perhaps you might find some cooking hints helpful.

The thermos bottle makes it possible to have hot or cold food in a lunchbox. Every meal is more appetizing and healthful if it includes a hot drink. Suitable hot foods are soup, hot tomato juice, cocoa, coffee and tea. Suitable cold foods and drinks are milk, fruit juices, lemonade, tomato juice and iced cocoa, coffee or tea.

Potatoes will bake much faster if they are cooked in boiling water 10 minutes before being placed in the oven. They also have a desirable mealy texture.

When you empty a milk bottle, rinse out the milk which clings to it. Use this water-milk combination for cooking—in soups, gravy and cakes.

There are many things you can do about canned peas. For instance, add a little butter and a dash of garlic salt while they are heating. Or instead of garlic salt add a very light sprinkle of dried mint, basil or rosemary.

Success or failure of cakes is sometimes due to the quantity of batter used in a pan. Use the exact size called for in the recipe.

Instead of greasing the pans for cake batter, use an unwaxed paper liner cut to fit the bottom of the cake pan. Sides of the pan should not be greased.

Experiments indicate that oven temperature should be reduced 25 degrees when glass baking pans are used. Baking time does not seem to vary.

A country special of ribs and kraut is made by alternating layers of sauerkraut and sliced apples and arranging short cuts of spare ribs crown-fashion around the sauerkraut-apple mound. Cover and bake in a moderate oven for two and one-half hours. Garnish with halves of glazed apples.

Go over the inside of pillow ticking with an iron which has been rubbed on a piece of wax. This will prevent feathers from working through when pillow is refilled.

To save the last bit of shortening which clings to the inside of the jar, fill the container with hot water. When the water cools, the shortening will have risen to the top in a layer.

Make left-over cooked cereals into flat cakes, brown in a small amount of fat and serve with syrup.

To prevent sausages from breaking during frying, roll in flour before cooking.

When frying fish, dip into milk, roll in meal or flour and fry. The milk helps brown the fish.

Brush the top crust of a pie with milk just before baking. The crust will brown lightly and be more tender.

Potatoes will mash more easily—and hold their heat—if you add warm milk when mashing.

When making baking powder biscuits, add one-fourth cup more liquid than usual. Beat well and pour into muffin tins and bake. This eliminates rolling and cutting and is a time-saver.

Dip sliced tomatoes into grated cheese, place on toast and brown in a moderate oven. Top with additional toast. Serve with a tossed green salad and beverage for a light luncheon.

To keep flowers fresh, change the water each night after cutting off about an inch of stem with a slanting stroke. If you have any charcoal, drop a small piece into the water. Remove the leaves near the bottom of the stem, as they spoil the water.

Save left-over lemon halves for cleaning copper. Dip them in salt and rub the stained and discolored articles. Wash well in hot sudsy water, rinse with boiling water and wipe dry.

Croquettes burst in cooking when too large, too thin, poorly shaped or if cooking fat isn't hot enough.

B.C. Doukhobors To Ask Release Of Men In Prison

NELSON, B.C., June 9.—(CP)—Reports circulated here yesterday that Doukhobors at Krestova, 16 miles west of Nelson, are organizing a delegation of eight to go to Vancouver to plead for the release from prison of members of their sect sentenced to jail for nudist demonstrations a year ago.

So far there has been no confirmation of the reports.

The Doukhobors, members of the Sons of Freedom are reported to have entrained for the coast city this morning, but police here were unable to state whether the group actually are en route. If the delegation has left they will arrive in Vancouver early Saturday.

Voting by Proxy Is For Captives Of Japanese Only

OTTAWA, June 9—(CP)—Proxy voting for prisoners of war in the general election Monday will be restricted to proxies on behalf of prisoners held by the Japanese, Jules Castonguay, chief electoral officer said yesterday.

In Vancouver last night election officials said they had asked for direction on the use of proxies because of the possibility of double voting through both a liberated prisoner and his next-of-kin voting.

Mr. Castonguay said the liberation of Europe had removed the necessity for proxies for prisoners held in Germany and the likelihood of double voting thus was eliminated.

McCoy Health Service

Without learning what particular type of heart trouble is present in any given case it is nevertheless possible to outline some general rules which will frequently prove helpful.

No matter what the possible cause may be, it is a good plan at the beginning of the treatment thoroughly to cleanse the digestive tract by fasting for a few days. The type of fast which will accomplish the most is the fast on fruit juices, or the fast on plain water. A four or five days fast will usually prove beneficial whether the heart disorder is caused from the pressure of food, from a general toxemia or a reflex cause.

The heart must inevitably have less work to do while the patient is fasting and he should therefore not hesitate to attempt it because he feels weak. He is usually stronger at the end of the fast and often finds that the heart is working more efficiently at that time than previously.

Regardless of the particular form of heart disorder I suggest the fast at the start of any regimen designed to help the heart. While the patient is fasting the heart action frequently becomes slower, which indicates that the heart is getting something of a rest. When the patient is omitting the ordinary meals the heart is relieved of some of its usual work and as a result, it often improves.

The diet following the fast should be well regulated both as to quality and quantity of food. Three small meals a day should be used, keeping the quantity of food to the minimum of the body's requirements. All gas-forming foods should be avoided such as onions, garlic and baked beans, and even such slightly gassy foods as turnips, cooked cabbage, and Brussel's sprouts are best omitted. For a time it is best to leave out highly starchy foods and very sweet foods although meat in reasonable amounts is beneficial.

When the patient is over-weight, it is important that a reducing regimen be started as the needless weight places an extra strain on the heart.

Most patients with heart disorders are especially interested in the question of whether to exercise or to rest. This must be decided according to the individual case. When the patient is wise about undertaking exercise and is willing to do a little at first and take more gradually then he may generally be permitted to go ahead and exercise. He is usually safe in exercising up to the point just below where he gets short of breath or gets markedly tired.

Exercise, when judiciously used is often of value as the heart is a muscular organ and like any other muscles, gains in strength with use. With continued rest, the heart muscle grows soft and flabby and the patient generally grows weaker. I advise complete rest in bed in the acute forms of heart trouble or in severe cases of chronic heart disorders, but the majority of patients do not fall in either classification and are advised to learn for themselves how much exercise they may safely take. It is all right to begin with tensing movements of the arms and legs, taken while lying down, and then to progress slowly to other more strenuous forms of exercise. Short walks are sometimes particularly helpful. The important thing is to start all exercising and walking gradually, using several months to work up to an increase if necessary. Follow exercise with rest and in this way you have the chance of doing the heart good without harming it. Avoid heavy exercise, sudden strenuous action, and excitement.

All questions regarding health and diet will be answered. Large stamped, self addressed envelope must be enclosed. Write on one side of paper only. Letters must not exceed 150 words. Address McCoy Health Service, The McCoy Building, 1151 West 6th Street, Los Angeles, Calif.

Two Main Issues In U.K. Election

LONDON, June 9—(CP)—Choice of a "free enterprise" government dominated by Conservatives or a "nationalization" government formed by Labor is conceded to be the main task before British voters in the July election, but there is plenty of scope among the 1,700 candidates for those who like variety.

Between the major opponents are the Liberals, whose platform is largely a combination of the other two, avoiding the extremes of both.

On the Conservative side there are non-party Nationals, Liberal Nationals and National Labor candidates of the Independent Labor, Commonwealth, Co-operative and Socialist parties.

On the extreme left are the Communists, and spread throughout are Independents of various political shades and Welsh, Irish and Scottish Nationals.

Stan Peeps' Diary

June 4th. (Office Day) Waked very merry, and early to my office. All the morning abroad about several businesses. Met with Tom Page who is still of the good old humour that we were of at school together and with him to the Coffee House. Home, and myself out of countenance in finding there our one-time neighbor, Mrs. Standish, she being a woman full of trouble as a soap opera, and welcome to nobody.

6th. To Lester Creed's where we did find Mrs. Creed within. Her friend, Mrs. Fairfax, is very pretty but much below my expectation, and her dressing of herself with her haire swept up short behind her eares, did make her seem so much the less to me. A most princely dinner. Among other fine fare, a capon with a scallop made of Delnor Corn Kernels and green peppers, which was so much to our liking, my wife begged the recipe.

7th. Abroad early to my office where all the morning until noon and then by coach to New Westminster. So home to dinner with my wife and then we did go to listen to a would-be Parliament-man. He gave a long, dry political speech and we wished ourselves out. I did say to my wife that most women, given two candidates, would choose the one whose looks most pleased them, but she opposed this mightily and did say she would not vote for this man were he as handsome as Anthony Eden. Away thence, and so to bed.

Major and Minor Notes

By John Oliver

IN THE COURSE of a season, an enormous volume of music is heard and an almost incalculable amount of effort goes into the preparation of performances. There are many ways of producing music, and each method has its votaries and protagonists. There are prominent and talented artists and organizations, and those of whom little or nothing is heard. Some cultivate the bright glow of public acclaim, while others are content to proceed along their own chosen road, making music for its own sake and for the enjoyment it gives the listeners. All contribute to the musical scene, and to the aggregate achievement in development and expansion of the art. When one becomes familiar with the activities of the various individuals and organizations, and aware of the time and effort consumed in presenting their contributions to musical welfare, there comes a realization of the true love of art that must permeate them in order to maintain enthusiasm, under difficulties and in face of obstacles.

JOHN OLIVER

Recalling events of the last musical season, there came to mind one youthful company of singers which in a short time has made a prodigious effort, and given valuable aid to the progress of choral work. Also it was recalled it was a group that went along its way, modestly and unostentatiously, seeking only to achieve lofty results, and to improve steadily. The band of vocalists to which reference is made is the Cavendish Choir, conducted by Leonard Betts, which has completed its year's work, and will re-assemble for the 1945-46 season on Sept. 11.

This choir came into existence as a result of requests from friends who had sung under Mr. Betts' direction in Saskatoon. Transferred here by the Canadian Pacific Telegraphs, his presence soon became known to those with whom he had been musically associated in Saskatoon, and he was prevailed upon to undertake the organization of the choir, with the first objective of entering the provincial music festival then impending. In March, 1944, preliminaries were completed and rehearsals commenced.

The festival was held in May, and the choir duly entered. It was successful in winning the Henry Shield in the women's chorus competition. Flushed with this success and with the incentive of attaining higher artistic goals, the choristers prepared a program which was given soon after the festival, on a Saturday evening, at the Public Library. There was a favorable response, and the singers were encouraged to continue.

In the season recently concluded the choir made no fewer than 12 appearances. Reviewing these events, and the number of works performed, one may form a fair idea of the effort involved. The choir has a repertoire of 20 works on which it may call. Others are in various stages of preparation, and it is expected that by next season the 20 available part songs will be doubled.

Here are the performances given by the Cavendish Choir: Women's Musical Club Saturday afternoon concert, nine items; Robertson United church Sunday evening service, five items; Council for Adult Education at Garneau school, three items; Rotary Club Christmas Carol Festival, three items; annual concert by the choir at the Corona hotel, in which it was assisted by Mrs. Ranald Shean and Dena Heckleman; American Red Cross hut, Sunday evening concert; concert at the Colonel Mewburn Pavilion, full concert; Edmonton and District Music Festival; District Music Festival grand concert at which the choir won the Hamilton trophy for the most artistic singing in the adult choral classes; Saturday evening concert at the Public Library, nine items; American Red Cross sponsored concert at the U.S. Air Base, full evening.

At the concerts for service personnel, the choir has been assisted by Mrs. Shean and Miss Heckleman, its accompanist Irene Lindskoog, and one of its members, Mrs. McLellan. In addition, two members, Mrs. D. Van Laare and Eirlys Roberts, and Mr. Betts, have performed short plays. Miss Lindskoog is one of this city's most talented pianists and most capable accompanists, and her playing has been one of the outstanding features of the choir's appearances. She is a sympathetic, helpful, understanding accompanist.

Prior to coming here as CPR Telegraph agent, Mr. Betts was one of Saskatoon's best-known musicians. He conducted the Saskatoon Philharmonic Choral Society in a performance of Lionel Monckton's charming musical comedy, combining old-fashioned and modern England, "The Quaker Girl," which ran for many hundreds of performances at the Adelphi theatre, London, later in New York, and then on tour.

Mr. Betts also assisted, and substituted for his father, who is choirmaster at St. John's Cathedral and who is now 81 years old. Mr. Betts has had extensive orchestral experience as well as vocal, and played the double bass in the Saskatoon Symphony Orchestra under the baton of Arthur Collingwood. He was secretary of the Kinsmen Male Chorus and a member of the Little Theatre Club. Since coming here he has continued as a performer on the double bass and played with the Edmonton Philharmonic Society in the season now concluded.

Warm praise was given by Mr. Betts to his singers for the results attained. He said that enthusiasm was the main theme that attendance at rehearsals had been excellent at all times, and all members were in the choir to do their best at all times. It is enthusiasts comprising such estimable groups as the Cavendish Choir who contribute immeasurably to the advancement of music. More power to them.

Annual Meeting, The First Church Christ Scientist, on June 4, 1945

Lasting world peace has its roots in the permanency of divine laws and cannot be expected to rise from the foundations of selfish desires and aims, The Christian Science Board of Directors told the annual meeting of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston last Monoday.

Commending the efforts of the California peace conference to evolve a practical basis upon which nations might outlaw war for all time, the Directors pointed out that these efforts would be successful insofar as they reflect the operation of God's government in human affairs.

ANNUAL GATHERING

The Directors' message featured the fourth annual gathering of Christian Scientists to be held under the restrictions of wartime travel. The audience reflected the desire of the Directors that Mother Church members living beyond the 50-mile area of Boston should abide by the requests of the Office of Defense Transportation and remain at home this year.

Highlighting the meeting was the election of Mrs. Myrtle Holm Smith of Waban, Massachusetts, as President of The Mother Church for the ensuing year, succeeding Paul Stark Seeley, and the re-election of Roy Garrett Watson, Treasurer, and Mary G. Ewing, Clerk.

Christian Scientists heartily concur in the purpose of peace conference representatives in California to find ways and means to prevent war, the Directors stated. They saw these efforts as making practical the Sermon on the Mount.

GOD'S LAW

"The manifestation of God's law can never fail to quiet the turbulent waters, but we must assiduously strive to rule out of our thoughts any qualities which would work against, rather than for the peace of the individual, and therefore of the world." In this way, the Directors indicated that world peace stems from the individual overcoming of human faults.

"In order to keep one's spiritual understanding clear there must be deep consecration in thought and deed to the government of divine Principle. There can be no lasting peace where selfishness reigns. Therefore, it is by those who base their thoughts upon God's laws that the present global problems can be solved and a lasting peace attained."

The Directors stated that membership in The Mother Church was now four times greater than it was 35 years ago. There is a growing awareness, they said, of the need for unselfish service to God and His law. Without frankness and honesty in the world, they added, "we have a whirlpool in which there is no steadiness and no rest."

GREAT STRUGGLE

In tribute to the courageous struggle of Great Britain against the rising tide of Naziism, at and after the time when she stood alone in her armed resistance, and to those who held on in other lands, the Directors stated: "Their consecrated prayers and unceasing efforts have been rewarded with a glorious victory."

The Directors also paid tribute to the faithful chaplains and wartime ministers who are "bringing comfort, healing and spiritual strength" to thousands of men and women in the armed forces.

Stating that the greatest catastrophe to overtake the human race was the loss of the true import of Jesus' life and teaching, the incoming President attributed that loss to Jesus' followers reverting to their old way of thinking and living, or "trying to graft the new onto the old." She cautioned against the human race losing its spiritual gains of more recent years for the same reasons.

DEFEAT EV'L

The assurance of the defeat of godless evil seeking world domination has made 1945 one of the most outstanding in human history, the retiring President said. While a great deal has been accomplished, he insisted, there was plenty still to be done. He impressed upon his audience, however, that the assured way of accomplishment lies within the leaven of spiritual truth implanted in human consciousness by Christ Jesus nineteen centuries ago.

"Let us rise," he said, "to the opportunities before us. Let us be eager to help solve the political, racial, and economic problems confronting the human race. Let us not fear change, but confidently expect change. Let us resolve to express more of the limitless range of thought natural to man."

That the religious rights of individuals are beginning to be recognized by those outside Christian Science was revealed by the Committee on Publication which pointed out that recently in California Christian Scientists were exempted voluntarily from proposed health insurance legislation sponsored by Governor Earl Warren and the CIO.

RADIO ACTIVITIES

Radio activities of The Mother Church have been extended, the Committee reported, as the result of a weekly program launched over 148 stations, consisting of electrical transcriptions recorded from the auditorium of the church. These are broadcast throughout the United States and in Canada, Hawaii, and the Canal Zone.

Demands for Christian Science literature continue to increase, according to the Trustees Under the Will of Mary Baker Eddy. Mrs. Eddy's writings, for instance, were figured to have risen in sale 23 per cent from 1941 to 1942, 57 per cent in 1943, and 78 per cent in 1944. The total sales for last year were said to be more than twice those of the last full prewar year, 1940.

The Trustees of The Christian Science Publishing Society reported the most active year in the Society's history, measured in terms of circulation, advertising, and total business volume. The Christian Science Monitor, and other publications of the Society, all reached new highs in circulation, they said. The Monitor's Paris branch has been reopened and overseas activities "will be resumed as rapidly as we are privileged to do so."

More than 1,000,000 lines of new advertising were added to the Monitor's columns, with both the number of advertisers and lineage attaining new high volumes, it was stated. The trustees indicated that many important developments were in store for the Monitor in the postwar era, and to this end orders have been placed for new presses and other printing equipment of the finest quality.

Opportunity

By Sgt. Fred W. Anderson

I asked my God for opportunity
To serve my comrades and to ease the strain
Of war on mind and nerve, for I would fain
Forget myself; I hoped that God through me
Would strengthen, cheer and lift an aching heart;
Would bid the clouds of grief and sin depart,
And, like the sun, reveal high destiny.

My answer came; "Thou too must cross the sea;
Thou too must drink the bitter cup of woe,
And war-torn minds and broken bodies know;
This is thy work who comest unto Me."
Today I go to face the hail of lead,
To serve the living where the cross lies dead;
And thus to grasp my opportunity.

Marine's Prayer

By Cpl. Calvin L. Greenberg

Dear God:
I hope that when my time comes
To fight,
I'll not pray for victory,
Nor hide my head in despair,
But pray for courage:
In victory, to keep from being vain,
In defeat, not to lose faith.

TODAY'S MESSAGE

Heroes in God

THIS is a day of heroes. They are all about us. They are the gallant soldiers wearing their decorations with an air of modest self-deprecation. They are the soldier-wives keeping brave vigil for their beloved ones. They are the men and women working long, hard hours that all the world may be at peace again.

Our hearts go out to the heroes, and we take inspiration and example from them. But there have always been heroes, and none greater than St. Paul who had a particular message for those who feel they can never be heroes—the multitudes who are afflicted and find it hard to be brave because their lot seems so hard to bear.

St. Paul knew tribulation. He knew disappointment, suffering and fear. But he triumphed over all his difficulties, and his stature is supreme among all the great followers of Christ. And because he had an understanding heart, he left behind such good counsel to comfort the lesser of his brethren. In his letter to the Corinthians, are the shining words he wrote after Satan had come to buffet him:

"Concerning this I thrice besought the Lord . . . And He said to me: 'My grace is sufficient for thee, for strength is made perfect in weakness.' Gladly therefore will I glory in my infirmities, that the strength of Christ may dwell in me. Wherefore I am satisfied, for Christ's sake, with infirmities, with insults, with hardships, with persecutions, with distresses. For when I am weak, then I am strong."

We can all be heroes in God. This is St. Paul's watchword for all who suffer and hunger for relief. We may cry out for salvation from our miseries; but if we pause to remember that none is tried beyond his strength to bear, that there is "glory in infirmity," why, then we may become real heroes ourselves, though only God may know and His reward may come not until the day of our glory.

GO TO CHURCH THIS SUNDAY

A Cross

By Pvt. John P. Humphrey

A small white cross marks where he lies,
Beneath the tropic, sunburned skies,
Beside the blue Pacific with its snowy foam.
He's one of the boys who won't come home.

The guns are still, the victory's won,
His work on earth, a task well done;
Adventure o'er, no more to roam,
For America's sake he had left his home.

A proud mother's son, stalwart, strong,
Answered the call to right a wrong;
That conquered people might again be free,
A new-born world he hoped to see.

His step ever forward, his head held high,
Freedom must live — though he must die;
Now, under heaven's celestial dome,
With God, in peace, at last — he's home.

COMPLICATED CITY

Bristol lies on the border of Tennessee and Virginia. State street is the dividing line of the states. Virginia is wet, Tennessee dry. Tax rates are higher in one state than in the other; traffic regulations and Sunday laws are different; and all things tend to make it a complicated city.

Anniversary

Metropolitan United church will celebrate the twentieth anniversary of Church Union appropriately at the morning service. Dr. E. J. Thompson, will speak on the subject, "God's Word to His Church Today". The choir will present the anthem, "And the Glory" by Handel. The evening service is withdrawn and the congregation will attend Holy Communion service at McDougall United church at 7:30 p.m.

Set Relief Goal

A goal of $300,000 will be sought by the Canadian Council of Churches for relief and reconstruction in Europe. All denominations affiliated with the council will conduct campaigns to raise the fund, which it is hoped will be completed by Sept. 1.

Baptists Name Slate Officers For Next Year

Reg. T. Rose was installed as moderator of the Edmonton-Peace River Association of Baptist churches at the final session of the eighth annual meeting of the association held in First Baptist church on Friday evening.

Other officers include: vice-moderator, the Rev. S. D. Trites; secretary-treasurer, S. Grimwood; committee chairmen are: evangelism the Rev. F. Antrobus, Ponoka; stewardship, F. Algar; social service, Scott Shade; Western Baptist, Mrs. H. Allison; isolated Baptists, Mrs. A. Milton.

Executive committee, Mrs. Stewart, the Rev. H. Flanagan, James Toller, the Rev. Daniel Young and Miss Poyce Hollingsworth. Gull Lake camp, secretary, Mr. Trites; camp committee: Mrs. F. G. McCoy, Miss Dicia Kean, Mr. Antrobus and Stuart Harris; Christian education, Mr. Toller, Mr. Flanagan, Mrs. R. Game, Mrs. Morgan, Miss Nancy Thompson and Miss Isabel Thompson.

A resolution opposing racial discrimination was passed and another thanking the members of First Baptist church for their courtesy and thanks to the press.

Miss Sylvia Smith, missionary to North Edmonton, mission led the devotional. Mrs. A. Morgan directed a demonstration by the Girl Explorers; Mr. Trites directed a play "Those Boys of Ours"; the Rev. Donald Fairfax was soloist, and Dr. Gordon Chester Warren, president of the Baptist Federation of Canada, was again the speaker.

Director of music at the evening meetings was Mrs. F. Barber Smith.

In the afternoon a discussion on extension work was continued from the morning session. The following ideas were given: That an extension committee be appointed from the association whose duty it shall be to arrange for the establishment of one new work each year;

A request be submitted for provision to be made by the budget committee for a grant for this purpose.

PRACTICAL STEPS

The pastors in the association be urged to take more practical steps in interesting their most promising young men and women to study for the ministry;

That in view of the increasing shortness of suitable and available men in the East and United States to man pulpits, members take the necessary steps to meet the need locally.

For this purpose it was suggesteed that a recommendation be submitted to the Baptist Union that negotiations be commenced with the authorities of St. Stephen college, Edmonton, which is affiliated to the University of Alberta with a possible view of establishing a chair in the college occupied by a man of the church's choosing, one who would inspire the young men and women to enter the ministry. A man with the personality and experience of the Rev. Keith Daniel, director of Christian education, would go a long way in solving the problem in recruits for the ministry.

The question of a well organized Bible school should be taken into serious consideration by a special committee from this association;

That it be recommended to the union for consideration that a federation of racial denominations of Baptists might be in the interest of a more uniform practice in our denominational work.

The Rev. J. A. Roskam held the chapel period.

"Relations of Church to Returned Men and Women and Post-war Problems" was the topic of the address given by Carl McDonald.

The convention concluded Friday evening.

Churches Raise Fund to Assist European Work

Protestant churches of Canada, Great Britain, and the United States, together with those of Sweden, Switzerland, Australia, and other nations, are raising large sums of money for the reconstruction of the stricken Protestant churches of Europe.

The reconstruction of dispersed congregations, the restoration of the ministry, the re-opening of Christian social work, will have first claims on the fund.

This money is being raised in appreciation of the faithful witness to Christian truth against Nazi error. Because of that faithful witness, churches have been destroyed, congregations dispersed, ministers moved to other countries, and many have had to die for their convictions.

Now, those who have remained true during great stress need help, for they are accepting the herculean task of restoring Christian institutions in Europe, and planting the spirit of the living Lord at the core of European reconstruction.

All Protestant churches of Canada are taking part. A special occasion for contributing to this fund will be given at the 20th anniversary communion service of the United Church of Canada to be held in McDougall church at 7:30 p.m. Sunday.

McDonald Baptist Church Activities

On Sunday morning the sermon topic was entitled "Things Jesus Has Done," and in the evening the pastor spoke on "Is Life Worth Living?"

On Sunday afternoon the Explorers, Trail Rangers and CGIT groups paraded from the church to the Memorial Hall, where they joined up with other young people's groups and proceeded to the Legislative Building grounds, where an open air service was held.

The Ladies' Auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. Wasmuth's on Monday evening.

There was no prayer meeting on Wednesday evening due to the association meetings that were being held at First Baptist church.

The contract for the erection of the parsonage has been let to J. Walsh, who will start on July 3.

The building fund committee is making a drive for donations from members in order to be in a position to complete the parsonage by the fall. All members are urged to do the best they can in this direction.

SPECIAL SERVICE TO COMMEMORATE CHURCH UNION—A Communion Service will be held at McDougall United Church at 7:30 p.m. on Sunday to commemorate the 20th anniversary of church union. Above are the six city ministers who will conduct the service.

United Church Communion Service Sunday Will Be Historic Event

A communion service for the United church at 7:30 p.m. on Edmonton area of the United Church of Canada, in observance of the 20th anniversary of church union, will be held at McDougall Sunday. All other evening services will be withdrawn in favor of this historic event. One elder from each congregation will assist in the administration and each congregation will provide an usher.

The ministers conducting the service will be the Rev. Dr. Murdoch MacKinnon, minister of Robertson United church; the Rev. Dr. A. K. McMinn, minister of McDougall United church; the Rev. Dr. E. T. Scragg, chaplain to the Col. Mewburn Pavilion and formerly of Wesley United church; the Rev. D. C. Ramsey, minister of Garnaeu United church; the Rev. Elgin G. Turnbull, minister of Knox United church, and the Rev. E. H. Birdsall, minister of Central United church.

The procession of ministers and administering elders will assemble in the school hall (downstairs) and enter the church during the singing of the processional hymn, The Church's One Foundation is Jesus Christ Her Lord.

DOUBLE MEANING

June 10 this year, has a double meaning. It is the 20th anniversary of church union and is also the inauguration of the crusade for Christ and His kingdom.

During the two decades of the union, 477,451 members have been added on profession of faith, a yearly average of more than 23,500. The number of families has risen by 118,000 to 487,500; and the total number of communicants has risen from 600,000 to 734,000. According to the 1941 Dominion census, 2,204,875 persons more than one-fifth of the entire population of Canada claimed the United Church as their Church.

During the 20 years of union, $264,000,000 has been raised for all church purposes. Of that amount, over $40,000,000 was used for missionary and other general enterprises of the church, and over $18,000,000 was for other benevolences.

PROVIDED FOR

The first decade closed with a deficit of $1,700,000; the second closes with the accumulated deficit completely underwritten and provided for.

Important landmarks in the life of the church were the publishing of The Hymnary, The Book of Common Order, and the United Church Catechism.

The Crusade for Christ and His Kingdom, being inaugurated, is in response to Canada's great need in a time of world-wide intellectual bewilderment and international tension. It will be a call to the church's membership and to all Canadians to rediscover the warm, intimate, living reality of God and His will for the world.

It will be the proclamation of the ever-new good news that God is able to do "exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think" when men truly repent and diligently seek to have that mind "which was also in Christ Jesus."

The crusade will be led by both laymen and ministers, and is planned to extend over two years.

Romance of Our Hymns

Not many who feel the great and soothing power in the hymn, Abide With Me, know that it was written by a devout and dying man. Kathleen Blanchard tells how Henry Lyte wrote the hymn in the days of his own approaching death.

By KATHLEEN BLANCHARD

Henry Francis Lyte, the author of Abide With Me, took the poetry prize three times in succession at Trinity college, Dublin.

His father, Captain Thomas Lyte, died when the boy was an infant.

Henry intended to be a doctor, but at the university changed his mind and took holy orders. For two years he served as curate of a parish, Wrexford, Ireland; then on to Cornwall, England.

On one occasion, his clergyman neighbor was seized with an illness. . . . Henry Lyte records how, "We prayed together and we found the true light. . . . I was greatly affected by the whole matter, and was brought to look at life with a different eye than before, and began to study the Bible and preach in another manner than I had previously done".

On his friend's death, Lyte, though far from strong, took upon himself the care of the bereaved family—and it was to that adopted daughter in years to come that he handed his immortal hymn, Abide With Me, on the morning of his departure to the south of France—a journey from which he was never to return.

Lyte records how he was jostled from one curacy to another until he was appointed perpetual curate of the fishing parish of Brixham, Devonshire.

A strange parish for such a delicate and tender spirit. Nevertheless, these rough folk of the sea had a deep-seated affection for the man who had christened their children and sympathized with them in their sorrows.

Lyte tried not to leave home. The sea, too, had been his friend since childhood.

He writes: "I have never been weary of its glorious face . . . and again, "The swallows are preparing for flight and inviting me to accompany them. . . . And yet, alas, while I talk of flying, I am just able to crawl, and ask myself whether I shall be able to leave England at all."

On the last evening at Brixham, the parting prayer was written. Its agony of farewell has given it such a hold upon the heart, for his own eventide was fast approaching, and the prophetic words, "Hold Thou Thy Cross before my closing eyes," were truly fulfilled.

Lyle was dying just two weeks after his arrival south. His manservant, greatly alarmed, hastened to find an English clergyman, and returned with the then Archdeacon of Chichester (afterwards Cardinal Manning), who stayed with him until he died and administered the last sacraments. "Shine through the gloom and point me to the skies."

Manning records how a heavenly light was on the dying man's face as with his finger he pointed upward and whispered: "Peace! Joy!" as his spirit passed through the gloom of earth to the morning of heaven.

Henry Lyte was buried at Nice, . . . Sweet-scented flowers are everywhere . . . but none more fragrant than his immortal prayer, Abide With Me.

Abide with me; fast falls the eventide;
The darkness deepens, Lord, with me abide;
When other helpers fail, and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless, O abide with me.

Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away;
Change and decay in all around I see;
O Thou, who changest not, abide with me.

I need Thy presence every passing hour;
What but Thy grace can foil the templer's power?
Who like Thyself my guide and stay can be?
Through cloud and sunshine, Lord, abide with me.

I fear no foe with Thee at hand to bless;
Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness;
Where is death's sting? Where, grave, thy victory?
I triumph still, if Thou abide with me.

Hold Thou Thy Cross before my closing eyes;
Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies;
Heaven's morning breaks, and Earth's vain shadows flee,
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me.

Christian Science

"God the Only Cause and Creator" will be the subject of the Lessen-Sermon at all Christian Science Churches on Sunday. The Golden Text is Revelation 4:11. One of the Scriptural citations is "O Lord, how manifold are thy works! in wisdom hast thou made them all: the earth is full of thy riches" (Psalms 104:24). One of the correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, is "From Love and from the light and harmony which are the abode of Spirit, only reflections of good can come" (p. 280).

WHITECOURT.—Members of the local Legion branch spent a few hours prior to their regular meeting Wednesday evening on a clean-up job on the grounds just east of the hall. It has been agreed that the rest of the lot is to be cleaned up in this manner during the summer.

EDSON.—The elementary and intermediate pupils of the Edson school presented a concert on Thursday and Friday. The children performed to packed houses on both occasions. Choruses, dances, plays, and comic songs were all introduced in a lively manner. The concert was presented to raise funds for school equipment and netted almost $145.

MILLET.—At least 70 per cent of the rural population of the district and 50 per cent of the village attended the Alberta Farmers Union rally at Leduc Wednesday.

RED DEER—Ernest Brown, of Edmonton, gave an illustrated lecture on early days in Western Canada at ladies' night of the Red Deer Lions' club in the Elks' hall. He showed a large number of slides and gave an interesting commentary with them. One of the features of the evening was the presentation of a Lions' button for attendance to E. A. Bowering, secretary of the club.

HANNA.—A former Hanna lawyer, Lawrence E. Ormond, KC, died in a Calgary hospital Tuesday morning. He was 52 years old. Mr. Ormond was born in Amherst, N.S. He was graduated in Arts from St. Francis Xavier, Antigonish, N.S., and received his degree in law at Dalhousie University. He served overseas in the first Great War and came to Hanna in 1919 where he set up a law practice.

MILLET. — Charlie Schultz was fortunate in not losing his tractor a few days ago. The tractor was being refueled from a gas drum when it was ignited from the exhaust, setting fire to the hose. Mr. Schultz and one son suffered minor burns about the hands and arms.

RED DEER—In order to raise money for their community work the Red Deer Kinsmen club will hold their annual outdoor carnival on the city square on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, June 13-16. There will be rides, games and sideshows.

WHITECOURT.—A meeting to arrange for the annual picnic and sports day was held, when the committee chosen to take charge of the event were: Bernie Hoyle, Allan Millar, Mrs. C. Feero, Mrs. F. Wackenhut, Delbert Wood, Ivan Cotnam and Elmer Lansett.

RIMBEY—A crow and magpie competition was organized by the Fish and Game club. It was decided to allow 10 points for a magpie's egg and also for a crow's egg; and 10 points for crows' and magpies' feet. Crows and magpies are more prevalent this year than ever.

British Commons Votes Huge Sum For War Expense

LONDON, June 9. — (Reuters) — The House of Commons yesterday passed a vote of credit of £1,750,000,000 (about $7,875,000,000) supplementing the £1,000,000,000 (about $4,500,000,000) already passed to meet the estimated cost of carrying on the war until next March.

The extra credit was requested by Sir John Anderson, chancellor of the exchequer, who explained the funds were required to cover a period of several months when the country will be without a parliament.

Says Nazis Planned Launch Gas Attacks

TORONTO, June 9—(CP)—Premier George Drew said last night that in 1941 the Germans had tankers which they planned to fill with poisonous gas and send against Britain just ahead of invading troops.

He said that Prime Minister Mackenzie King had for some time refused to set aside some territory in Canada where British scientists could carry out experiments with poisonous gas.

In 1937 Mr. King had refused to allow Britain to train flyers in Canada. In 1941 he refused Britain permission to carry out the gas experiments.

Eventually some territory near Duffield, Alta., was placed at Britain's disposal for the experiments.

British intelligence knew about the German gas tankers, but they did not know how far the gas clouds would travel inland when released from the tankers, nor how far back the second line of defence should be established. That was why experiments were necessary.

Ask Imprisonment For All Considered Habitual Criminals

CALGARY, June 9. — (CP) — Legislation enabling a judge to order "preventative detention" for an indeterminate length of time for a proven "habitual criminal" was recommended in a brief presented to the conference of Alberta supreme court judges which opened at Calgary yesterday.

Suggesting that the Criminal Code of Canada be amended by adding a new section to deal with such criminals, the brief was in the form of a majority report presented by an Alberta provincial committee studying "uniformity of legislation."

Nearly every supreme court judge of Alberta is attending the conference, as are ranking police officers and officials of other organizations interested in "uniformity of practice" in law enforcement.

Says Social Credit Members Not Able To Assist Province

CALGARY, June 9. — (CP) — Although Social Credit provincially may give good government, its 10 members in Ottawa are not effective in promoting the interests of Alberta, potentially the wealthiest province per capita of all, said Hon. Norman McLarty, until recently secretary of state, at a Liberal political rally here last night.

Mr. McLarty, who was elected in 1935, made postmaster general in 1939, minister of labor in 1940 and secretary of state three years ago, is not running for re-election. He has been campaigning for several days in Alberta, part of the time in Medicine Hat where he once practiced law.

California Fire Burns Quantities Army Foodstuffs

OAKLAND, Calif., June 9.—(AP)—A six-alarm fire in an army warehouse sent smoke towering hundreds of feet into the air yesterday and destroyed considerable military food supplies, United States army officers said, before it was extinguished.

Three or four men were reported injured slightly as 15 pieces of equipment from the Oakland fire department fought the spectacular blaze.

First reports said the fire was adjacent to munitions supplies but army public relations officers denied this.

The fire, of undetermined origin, began in the centre section of a building 1,320 feet long.

After Mid-Air Crash

Plunged 14,000 Feet to Earth, Airman Suffered 1 Broken Rib

BOURNEMOUTH, Eng., June 9.—(CP Cable)—WO. 2 Harry Denison, 20-year-old Canadian airgunner from the Creighton Valley district of British Columbia, hurtled 14,000 feet through space in the shattered remnants of a Halifax bomber and suffered only a broken rib, it was disclosed yesterday.

Denison, who was conscious throughout the earthward plunge, now is resting at the RCAF released prisoners-of-war centre here.

The airman believed himself the only survivor of two Canadian Thunderbird squadron bombers thought to have crashed in mid-air on their way to raid Chemnitz, Germany, last March.

Visibility was low as the big bombers headed toward Chemnitz in darkness, Denison said, "when, without warning, there was a terrific bang which made me see stars and my mid-upper turret collapsed around me, cutting my face."

What remained of the Halifax started to spin crazily.

FELL LIKE COMET

"I undid my turret and fell to the floor," he said. "By that time the thing was falling like a comet. I couldn't move to reach my chute so just hung on. There wasn't a sign of flak so it must have been another kite which struck us.

"I died a thousand deaths. The speed was like the combination effort of the world's fastest express trains and the noise like the howl of all the winds which have ever blown."

Suddenly there was a bump and Denison blacked out. When he recovered, he was hanging to the sides of the fuselage with his feet still partly in the wrecked turret. He turned over and "was very sick for a long time."

His face was covered with blood. Snow drifting through the broken fuselage almost covered his body before he finally crawled out, hoping to find other members of the crew.

NO TRACE OF CREW

There was not a trace of his mates. Denison found that only a foot of the port wing of his bomber remained and only six feet of the starboard wing. Only the centre of the fuselage was left.

In the ghostly moonlight amid the swirling snow, Denison crawled through the thick forest which had broken the fall of the fuselage and probably saved his life. He said the woods reminded him of his home countryside. He was too weak to travel far.

When daylight came the young gunner, who became known around here as "the Creighton Valley Comet," crawled and walked to a road. He nearly drowned when he collapsed into a stream from which he was trying to get a drink. He was so weak that not even water would remain on his stomach.

Two Russian workers found him and carried him to a German army post. While waiting to be taken, he found in his pocket a steel locker key which had been broken.

Denison was posted missing and it was not until he arrived at Bournemouth that his parents learned their son was safe.

DERBY DAY takes on special significance this year with Great Britain's famous race and its illustrious Kentucky namesake both scheduled for the same day. This also is the last English Derby to be run under war-time conditions at Newmarket, for a return to Epsom Downs is planned for 1946.

The Kentucky Derby, always run in May, is late this year due to the recent racing ban. Today's is the 71st running, the first being held on May 17, 1875.

Epsom's Derby, as it is still referred to in England, although known elsewhere as the English Derby, was instituted in 1780, but the oldest stakes race in the world is the St. Leger, inaugurated by one Col. St. Leger in 1776.

KING'S PLATE OLDEST

THE Oaks, won Thursday by Lord Derby's Sun Stream, was established in 1779 by the 12th Earl of Derby, who thought something should be done to provide action for three-year-old fillies and his Bridget was the first winner. The same Earl a year later dreamed up the race which bears his name.

The King's Plate, run annually at Toronto's Woodbine is the oldest race run continuously on the North American continent, this year's being the 86th, which gives it a 15-year edge on the Kentucky.

Dante, winner of today's English Derby is the first favorite to come through since the race was moved from Epsom Downs in accordance with war-time regulations. Jockey William Nevett who piloted Dante, won the race a year ago on Ocean Swell. The distance for the English Derby is 1½ miles, a quarter mile longer than the Kentucky.

MATT WINN, the "Mr. Derby," in Louisville today, was just under 14 when he sat in a wagon and watched Aristides win the first Kentucky Derby in 1875. Colonel Winn will be 84 years old on June 30.

Horse racing appealed to young Wynn so much that he came back year after year to watch the cream of the three-year-old crop go to the barrier and eventually he became associated with the project.

The course, formerly known as Louisville Jockey Club, was changed to Churchill Downs in honor of the original owners of the land where the course was situated. Colonel Winn has been directly concerned with the Derby since 1902, and its great success is almost entirely attributable to his enthusiasm and foresight. Today's race is worth $64,850 to the winner, top price in its history.

Woodward Teams Split With Burns In Independent

C. Woodward Ltd. and Burns teams divided their Independent Fastball League doubleheader on Friday night, Burns' men winning 7-6 and Woodward girls taking a 23-4 decision.

Ernie Regner hit a home run for the Woodward squad with two on the fourth and Harry Hobinski's round-tripper provided the winning margin for Burns in the fifth.

Walter Budinski and Morris Cody, both of Burns had doubles.

Woodward girls scored eight runs in the second frame, chiefly on account of opposition errors. Doris Wood homered for Woodward in the fifth, while Nellie Smith also had a four-ply blow, her's being the first Burns' run. Eva Dickson tripled for the losers in the fifth.

Men's game.

COMMANDING LEAD.—Byron Nelson, top money winner of the U.S. winter tour, is well on his way to winning first prize in the $10,000 Canadian PGA open following another blistering round at the Ilesmere, Que., course Friday. He turned in a four under par card of 68 to take a comfortable seven-stroke lead on his closest rival, Jug McSpaden. Thursday he fired a course record nine under par.

Bill Price Hits Safely Four Times

Canadians waved their bats with great efficiency and took full advantage of eight South Side errors Friday night to register a 12-6 victory at Clarke Stadium and move into a first place tie with EAC in the Edmonton Junior Baseball League.

Led by Bill Price, Canadians pounded two South Side chuckers, Hal Pruden and Dave Ellis, for a total of 13 hits and played good ball afield despite four miscues to mark up the one-sided triumph.

The tall, smooth working Price went to bat six times and pounded out four safeties for one of the best hitting efforts turned in by any junior player this season.

Bob Fleming started on the mound for CAC and posted his first win in holding the South Siders to one run in five innings before turning over the job to Bill Stanton. Stanton, although in difficulty in the seventh when the losers rallied for a quartet of runs, pitched four hit ball for the remaining innings to keep Canadians on top.

Jack Carney's crew took a commanding lead in the first frame when they pushed across four runs. Doug Clarke started off the rally with a single to left field. Bill Gadsby, next up, was hit by pitcher, Bill Price singled and an error in centre field allowed Clarke to score, and put Gadsby on third and Price on second. Jack Sugden then came to bat and pounded out a double to right field to drive in Gadsby and Price. Sugden later scored the fourth run of the session on Emil LaBranche's single to right.

From then on Canadians took their own time, adding one in the second and rallying again in the third when they counted five. The winners counted another in the fourth and one more in the sixth to make up the even dozen.

The four run inning for the Paul Martel baseballers came in the seventh on singles by Reed and Jack McClary, a double by Johnny Christenson, two walks, a pair of stolen bases and a wild pitch.

The losers had a good chance to come back in the eighth when Stanton walked four in a row, forcing in one run, but the best they could do was to count the one tally.

Army, Navy Pats Collect 18 Hits Beating Mortons

Army and Navy Pats turned on the hitting power and belted three Morton pitchers for a total of 18 hits in the City Girls' Fastball League contest at Kingsway Park Friday night and trounced the former leaders 14-3. The loss for Mortons dropped them into second place and allowed the idle Walk-Rites to take over the leadership.

Winnie Reid, Pat first sacker, led the hitting spree with four safe blows in five trips to the plate while Lucella MacLean also had a good night, getting three for six.

Mary Verenka hurled a nice five-hitter at the Mortons and was never in difficulty.

Nelson Takes 7 Stroke Lead In $10,000 Canadian Open

ILESMERE GOLF AND COUNTRY CLUB, Que., June 9. — (CP) — Bryon Nelson took a commanding lead at the half-way mark in the $10,000 Canadian Professional Golfers' Association open tournament here Friday by adding a four-under-par 68 to his record 63.

Nelson's closest rival, Jug McSpaden lost a bit more ground although he shot a three-under-par 69 to add to his 69 of Thursday for a two-day total of 138 compared with 131 for Nelson.

A crowd of more than 5,000 watched the play Friday and saw many of the lesser golfing lights drop out of competition in the face of the hot pace of the leaders.

Meanwhile, amateur Ed Furgol of Riverbanks, N.Y., loomed as the tournament's surprise by stroking a 69 to add to his 70 of Thursday for third spot in the field ahead of many leading professionals.

Bill Kerr, of Toronto, took over as the top Canadian pro when he added a 69 to his par of 72 of Thursday to go one up on Stan Horne of Islesmere, who took a par 72 after a 70 Thursday. The two Canadian pros were fourth and fifth, respectively, with Chicago's Jimmy Hines and Joe Zaphardt of Morrisburg, Pa., right behind with 143's.

Phil Farley, of Toronto, playing with Nelson and Horne, topped the Canadian Simon Pures with a three over par 75 to add to his 73 of Thursday.

Highlighting Friday's shooting was the final appearance of Bing Crosby, mellow-voiced radio star who, apart from playing a sound game of golf over a nine-hole route, went through a repertoire of songs for the crowd. Bing carded a 37, one over par.

Takes Over Lead In Chess Tourney

SASKATOON, June 9.—(CP)—J. H. Belson, Toronto salesman, took over the leadership in the Dominion chess tournament Friday night with two victories which gave him a one-point lead over Nathan Divinsky, Winnipeg, L. M. Duval, Vancouver, and Frank Yerhoff, Regina.

Wrestling Show Empire, June 18

Two new men have been named for spots in the preliminaries for the wrestling show at the Empire Theatre on Monday, June 18, starting time for which is 8:45.

Promoter George Girvin announced last night that Johnny Dean and Tex Wilkins, boys recently out of the services, will appear on the card against opponents still to be selected.

Chris Lafkas, Greek wrestler whose home is in Boston, is billed for the main bout with Ted Christy of Hollywood.

Semi-windup principals are Alberto Carroll, of Mexico City and Seelie Samara.

Ace at Highlands By Mrs. Watson

Mrs. R. M. Watson of Edmonton Golf and Country Club shot a hole-in-one at Highlands on Friday afternoon.

Playing toward the 12th hole (93 yards), Mrs. Watson got a lovely pitch onto the green, the ball rolling about six feet and dropping into the cup.

Mrs. R. Moon, Mrs. A. T. Williamson and Mrs. Douglas Harper were engaged in a foursome with Mrs. Watson when the ace was made.

Dizzy Trout Back

Detroit in First Place By Beating Chicago 2-1

DETROIT, June 9.—(AP)—Detroit Tigers grabbed the American League lead here Friday by beating the Chicago White Sox 2-1 in a twilight game before 14,385 fans in the opener of a four-game series.

Forrest (Joe) Orrell, tall Tiger righthander hurled four-hit ball in pitching Detroit into first place, but Paul (Dizzy) Trout was called in to retire the Sox in the ninth after Orrell put the first two batsmen on base.

It was Trout's first appearance of the season but the victory went to Orrell, who had lost both of his two previous starts.

Detroit scored its runs off starter Thornton Lee Chicago left-hander, who gave six hits before retiring for a pinch-hitter in the seventh.

The one-run victory was Detroit's 10th this season and put the Tigers nine percentage points ahead of the second place New York Yankees.

Joyce Recovers To Whip Williams

NEW YORK, June 9.—(AP)—Although knocked down for a count of two in the last round, Willie Joyce, a 13 to 5 underdog, staggered to his feet and floored Ike Williams in turn to win a 10-round split decision over the NBA lightweight champion in a non title go at Madison Square Garden last night.

A crowd of 12,491 that paid $33,106 screamed itself hoarse in the last round as Joyce, apparently knocked out, got to his feet and outslugged Ike the rest of the stanza.

South Side A's Edge Out Leafs Junior Fastball

A run in the seventh inning by Colin Kilburn on a double, passed ball and a flyout to right field gave South Side Athletics a 7-6 Junior Fastball League win over Maple Leafs at Kingsway Park Friday night and put the Athletics back in solo possession of first place.

Jimmy Burke and Murray Stewart hooked up in a tight pitching duel, the Maple Leaf hurler only allowing eight hits and Stewart seven.

It Says Here
by Bob Hope

BOB HOPE

WASHINGTON, D.C., June 9.—I see where the automobile manufacturers have announced they're ready to produce new cars by mid summer, and Brother, I'm ready. I've got the only car in the world that horses still sneer at. It's not my fault it's in such bad condition because I've given it the very best of care. They just didn't put good materials in the 191[illegible] models. I'm sorry I rushed in and bought it so fast. I should have waited for the models with self starters. In fact, the car's so old a garage man couldn't even find the crank until I told him on which side to look. I drove it into a service station the other day and the attendant took one look at it and pumped in 10 gallons of embalming fluid.

And they're going to incorporate a lot of features learned in making airplanes during the war. That'll be nothing new to the California drivers . . . they've been hedge-hopping along Wilshire boulevard for years. But it's really going to be wonderful. Just imagine being able to strafe a pedestrian before you run over him. I put a little money into an auto invention. It's a car that stops automatically when it sees a red light and goes when it sees green. We demonstrated it and ran over Pat O'Brien and Jimmy Cagney three times each before we found out it was St. Patrick's Day.

Swastikas Now About Hardest Things to Find in Germany

By JOSEPH W. GRIGG, Jr.

FRANKFURT-ON-MAIN, June 8 — (UP) — There were just two swastikas to be found in Frankfurt today, a month after Germany's surrender, and they were both in bombed buildings. [illegible]

There used to be tens of millions of swastikas in Germany. They were part of every building and every house in Hitler's heyday. Every household was forced to own at least one.

Today a swastika is the hardest thing to find in Germany. They have been burned, and are perhaps "gone underground."

I spent a whole day searching for Nazi signs [illegible] Wilhelm Sprenger. Of course, nobody here will admit ever being a Nazi, and they all have stories to tell about Sprenger.

They tell about how he had a concrete bomb-proof shelter made for himself and his voluminous blonde mistress, and that was where the two of [illegible] of Frankfurt.

[illegible] Sprenger ordered that anyone who left Frankfurt would be shot. But when the Americans approached the town, he bundled [illegible]

"DISCHARGED PERSONNEL"

That is the official name for Canada's sons and daughters, upon again becoming civilians.

Many steps are necessary to really transform "discharged personnel" into "civilians" —and no step is more important than finding a job, providing work.

Just as our Armed Services must change into civilians once more, to pursue the paths of peace, so must Canada's industry reconvert to peace, after frantic war production.

No device to speed reconversion of our war plants must be overlooked—for we must maintain high production, and high employment.

Following years of labour shortages, industry must be provided now with key men, to make jobs for others —for all coming out of the Forces.

"First in, first out", is to be Canada's general rule of discharge from the Services.

But to help industry provide jobs, to aid quick reconversion, a few key men will be released from the Forces speedily, where employers in industry show that this will mean more jobs for others.

Employers in industry, seeking the release of men for key jobs, will have to prove their case. They must apply for any men they require to—

Applications approved by this Committee will be submitted to the Industrial Selection and Release Board at Ottawa.

The Board and District Committees have representatives of the Departments of Labour, National Defence, Munitions and Supply and Reconstruction, as well as of the National Employment Service.

There is no change in present regulations regarding the release of soldiers to agriculture. In these cases soldiers will continue to submit their applications to their Commanding Officer as heretofore.

Experience Overseas Leads City Airman To Embark on New Career as Newsman

A helping hand from the gang in the office is really appreciated by the fellow returning to the "strange" workday world after a long period in the service. The kind of welcome a veteran gets from the boys in the office is a highly important factor in the struggle of readjustment. Below is another in the series of personal stories of Edmonton ex-servicemen.—EDITOR.

By JACK DeLONG

Young Laurie Graham of 10568 102 street, saw at first hand how Canada's newsmen quietly carried on their work of gathering news for Canadian readers even while bombs crashed down on war-scarred London.

A junior operator in the Edmonton bureau office of The Canadian Press before enlisting in the RCAF in August, 1941, young Graham talked to Ross Munro, famed war correspondent; Alan Randal, Louis Hunter, Doug Amaron and Alan Nicholson, all top Canadian Press writers, in the bomb battered Canadian Press building in the heart of London. Right there and then YOUNG EX-AIRMAN WORKS FOR CANADIAN PRESS—Laurie Graham saw how Canadian Press staff writers got the news for Canadians when bombs rained down on London. That decided him to return to a job in the Edmonton bureau of the Canadian Press after his discharge from the RCAF in which he served for four years. He is shown above at his duties of desk man and machine operator in the CP office in the CPR Building.

City Invests $8,064,000 in Victory Loan

R. V. Price, city chairman of the National War Finance Committee announced Saturday that the final total sales in the Eighth Victory Loan were 32,510 applications, $8,064,000 which is 127 per cent of the quota of $6,350,000. The total applications in the Seventh Loan were 31,836 for $6,914,750 which was 125.7 per cent of the quota of $5,500,000.

In spite of the fact that Calgary led all through the campaign it finished up in second place. The Eighth Victory Loan results in Calgary were 31,978 applications for $7,941,350 which was 125 per cent of the quota of $6,350,000. Edmonton received 532 more applications for $122,650 more money than Calgary.

Mr. Price stated that he wished to thank first all the citizens of Edmonton for their whole-hearted co-operation in the Eighth Victory Loan, which was the most important loan of all.

Mr. Price stated he was taking this means of thanking the thousands of workers in this city for putting Edmonton over the top with such a magnificent total.

J. E. Enright was chairman.

"Adequate pensions for everybody at the age of 60 is one of the CCF objectives," she said, "together with full medical services for all, free in the way that education is free, equal educational opportunities for all children."

To provide these and other services, production must be maintained at a high level to provide jobs for everyone.

"The CCF maintains that we cannot keep production up to full unless we extend public enterprise to cover the financial institutions and the big monopolistic corporations for monopoly thrives only by scarcity. We have to plan for peace as it was done for war."

CCF Candidate Says Coldwell Is No "Fuehrer"

Speaking to a meeting of 25 persons in Rundle church Friday night, H. D. Ainlay, CCF candidate for Edmonton East, branded as "ridiculous" the statement made Thursday night by Arthur S. Burrows, Progressive Conservative of Edmonton West, that the leader of the CCF party, M. J. Coldwell, "is the fuehrer of Canada."

"The statement that Mr. Coldwell is the fuehrer of Canada is utterly ridiculous in the light of the results of the servicemen's vote in the Ontario election," he said. "Certainly these men, who gave 43 per cent of their votes to the CCF in the Ontario election have not been fighting and dieing overseas to rid the world of one Hitler just to set up another one at home."

HALF SALARY

The candidate spoke of the wages paid to Canadian labor on the airport projects in Northwest Canada, referring particularly to the Namao field. "Canadian workers had to work alongside United States labor, doing the same jobs, for half the salary the Americans were receiving. The War Labor Board issued instructions to the contractors that Canadian workers' pay should not exceed certain ceilings and then the Canadian government took over the airfield," he said.

Ben Hager was chairman of the meeting.

Short Talks

by Hon. Jas. A. MacKinnon

You must have been struck during the campaign which is now ending, by the fact that Government candidates have talked about what they have actually done and have pointed to their record of actual performance and definite plans for the future.

Other parties have been content to rely on mere promises, vague suggestions or destructive criticism.

Surely it is to your own interest to continue in office the Government which has prepared plans for the maintenance of full employment and social security in Canada.

I urge all my friends and supporters in every part of Edmonton West to vote on Monday and to use their best endeavours to persuade their friends to vote as well. I hope there will be a record vote in every district.

By renewing your mandate to the present government, you are assured that Canada will have a strong, stable, forward-looking administration during the next critical years.

I again invite all my old friends and my many new supporters to cast their ballots on Monday and to give me the opportunity to continue to serve you personally at Ottawa to the best of my ability at all times.

Please mark your ballot [illegible]

DOROTHY DIX SAYS—

Common Law Wife Gets Nothing But Reputation

Wise Girl Avoids Temptation and Walks a Narrow Path; Lifetime of Misery Not Worthwhile For Few Hours Pleasure

DEAR MISS DIX: I have been engaged to a young men with whom I am very much in love for several years, but it has not been feasible for us to marry. Now he is about to be sent overseas and he wants me to live with him as his common law wife until he goes. That is against my principles and upbringing, but does it make sense for us not to take what happiness we can while we can get it?

BEWILDERED GIRL.

ANSWER: Yes, doing right always makes sense, just as doing wrong is always folly in the long run. Look over the people you know. Especially consider the women you know. Who are the happy ones? Who are the contented ones? Who are the respected ones? Aren't they, every one of them, the women who had sense enough not to be carried away by their passions or by the temptation of the minute, but who were wise enough to walk the straight and narrow path?

Plenty of girls nowadays are throwing their caps over the windmill. They are thinking that the men they are in love with may not come back from the war and that this might be the only chance they will have at a bite of romance and a bit of adventure. They are thinking that this little interlude of lovemaking may be the one bright spot in a drab existence and that they would be silly not to take it.

But that is where they are wrong. The foolishness comes in when they pay too high for their fun, when they gamble too recklessly with fate and when they stake a whole life's happiness on a few days' pleasure.

It makes sense to count the cost of what we do and take thought of the future. Before you go off on this premature honeymoon with your fiance, reflect on a number of things. One is that a man's mistress is never as glamorous to him as his sweetheart was and that many a husband throws up to his wife the indiscretion that he persuaded her into committing. Also, remember that the boy friend may fall in love with some other girl, marry her and leave you in the lurch, with your soiled reputation. And what if you should be left as that most unfortunate of women, one who has an illegitimate child clinging to her skirts?

It always makes sense for a girl to be good.

WAIT

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I am 17 years old and I wish to enlist in the Maritime Service, but my parents refuse to give their consent—perhaps because I already have two brothers in the service overseas. Two months have passed since they refused and I have completely changed and do all of the dreadful things I never thought of doing before. I know I am off to a bad start, but I don't care what becomes of me. I feel that I am being cheated out of my life's dreams and yearnings. What is your advice?

UNHAPPY.

ANSWER. Well, son, as you are so near the draft age, my advice to you is to have enough common sense and endurance to wait for it patiently instead of going off the deep end. You are acting like a spoiled child and not showing the stuff of which sailors are made.

Anyway, you must be animated by patriotism in being so anxious to enlist and the best way you can serve your country is by making a fine man of yourself. Character has to be behind every act of the sailor or the soldier to make him of value. So don't you see that you are being a traitor to your country when, because you can't do at once what you want to do, you take to evil courses? No army would ever win a battle if it were filled with drunken adolescents.

So brace up and behave yourself. Get hold of yourself while there is yet time.

WHAT TO SAY

DEAR MISS DIX: Can you tell me what to talk about during a date? I get tongue-tied when I go out with a boy, but everybody else can think of snappy comebacks. All I can do is listen.

MARY ELLEN.

ANSWER: Well, you couldn't have a greater accomplishment than being an intelligent listener. The world is too full of talkers, but listeners are few and far between. All that you have to do is to ask a boy some question about himself and that will get him started. Then all that you will have to do will be just to lend him your ears and you will never lack for dates.

War Kitchen

BY GAYNOR MADDOX

Fewer ration coupons do a bigger job for Sunday night supper than they do at the dinner hour. Everyone enjoys Sunday evening get-togethers, so how about a supper party?

Here are a few suggestions. If the night is warm, serve large pitchers of iced tea or other chilled beverages.

GINGERBREAD SQUARES

(Use 2 packages gingerbread mix to serve 12)

Follow recipe given on package of prepared gingerbread mix. Bake. Cut in squares while warm. Serve at once. If your sugar ration permits sprinkle with confectioners' sugar or spread with lemon glaze.

LEMON GLAZE

(Makes enough to frost 2 8-inch squares)

Combine 1 cup confectioners' sugar, 1 tablespoon each lemon juice and water; add ½ teaspoon grated lemon rind.

PEANUT BUTTER AND RELISH SANDWICHES

(Makes 24)

Spread 6 slices white bread with peanut butter and 6 more with sweet pickle relish. Put together. Remove crusts; cut each sandwich in 4 squares.

DE LUXE OPEN SANDWICHES

Serves 5

Ten bread slices, 10 bologna slices, 5 poached eggs, 1 cup medium white sauce, 1 cup grated American cheddar cheese, 5 tomatoes, mayonnaise or salad dressing.

Toast bread. Saute bologna slices; place on 5 toast slices. Place poached egg on each; cover with white sauce; sprinkle with cheese; broil. Slice tomatoes; place on 5 remaining toast slices. Spread with mayonnaise or salad dressing. Broil.

Monday's Menu

BREAKFAST: Orange juice, ready-to-eat cereal, scrambled eggs, [illegible] coffee ring, coffee, milk.

DINNER: Beef, veal and vegetable loaf, mushroom sauce, baked potatoes, asparagus, herb sauce, [illegible] bread, butter, butterscotch tarts in graham cracker shells, coffee, milk.

SUPPER: Jellied tomato bouillon, de lux open-faced sandwiches, celery hearts, olives, gingerbread squares with lemon glaze, ice tea, iced cocoa.

Mother: "We'll put loops of twine on your little hoe and rake and you can hang them on these hooks on the side of the garage when you are through with them."

Mother: "When you are through playing with your hoe and rake wipe them off and put them away in your room."

Son: "It takes too long to go way in the house."

Reducing the time and energy involved in the care of possessions makes more possible the acquirement of this good habit.

THE ITCH GOES AROUND IN THE SPRING, TRA-LA

When my nine-year-old daughter broke out with itch (writes a reader from up north—she does not explain how she knew the child had itch—scabies a three-syllable word, pronounced ska-bi-ez, accent on the ska) I rubbed her with sulfur and lard for two weeks. Seeing she was getting worse instead of better I gave her one-half teaspoon of sulfur and jelly the first and fourth day and she was relieved and her skin cleared beautifully. Would it be a good policy to give her this tonic every spring? (Mrs. B. H.)

If the child had the itch (scabies) it is unlikely that merely rubbing with sulfur and lard would cure the disease, although it might irritate the skin and aggravate whatever the primary skin trouble may be. Of course, if the trouble was really the itch taking sulfur internally could have had no influence upon it.

Nine times out of ten a skin eruption or breaking out that itches a good deal is not scabies.

Scabies, old fashioned "seven-year" itch, properly treated can be cured in twenty-four hours. Being due to the itch mite, a minute insect barely visible to the naked eye, which burrows in the skin and deposits its eggs in the burrows, it is highly contagious through direct contact or contact with objects which have been contaminated by a person with the disease—clothing, papers, books, toilet articles, hats (trying on), doorknobs, hanging straps, chair arms, etc.

The diagnosis of scabies is not easy unless the physician is familiar with it and on the alert. One reason why the itch goes around in the spring and early summer is that a case has escaped recognition and the patient innocently carries the disease into a community where he or she goes to work or play.

It is doubtful whether any newfangled remedy or treatment for the itch is superior to sulfur ointment, provided this is properly used. Sulfur ointment is not just sulfur and lard, but the official U. S. P. sulfur ointment containing approximately 15% sulfur and the sulfur is extinguished — so finely incorporated in the ointment base that no particle can be seen or felt with the fingers. At least half a pound of the ointment is necessary.

First a prolonged hot bath and an all-over scrub with soap and water and brush, to the limit of tolerance. Then dry, and thoroughly rub the sulfur ointment on every part of the skin that shows any sign of trouble. Wallow in the ointment over night. Next morning a bath, clean clothes, clean bedclothing and clean linen. If the sulfur ointment is properly made and applied as described, not just dabbed on here and there, a cure should be obtained. Of course, re-infestation will occur if any clothing or toilet article or bed linen used before the treatment is used again without laundering, a day in the sun, or dry cleaning.

McKenney On Bridge

By WILLIAM E. McKENNEY
America's Card Authority

Here's another hand taken from the final round of the Vanderbilt Tournament in which Helen Sobel and B. Jay Becker got a good score.

Becker won the opening lead with the ace of diamonds and returned the ten of diamonds which was won by South with the king. Declarer led the eight of spades. Mrs. Sobel played low and dummy won the trick with the queen. A small heart came back and was won with the king. Another spade was played. Mrs. Sobel jumped in with the ace and now she knew from the bidding that South could not hold the ace of clubs so she laid down the king of clubs and continued with the four of clubs, Becker winning with the ace.

Now, of course, you can see at this point that North and South can take the balance of the tricks and the queen of hearts is going to drop but Becker came back with the deuce of clubs. Declarer, of course, did not know whether the queen of hearts would drop, so at this point, he elected to take the club finesse which Mrs. Sobel won with the ten spot, defeating the contract.

SOLOMON'S SEAL IS NOT THE "STAR OF DAVID"

There is considerable confusion in the representation of the two star signs, Solomon's Seal and the Star of David, and many people erroneously use them interchangeably. The Star of David is six pointed, made by placing two triangles one over the other. It is the symbol of Judaism, and is seen on synagogues, sacred vessels and on the Zionist flag. Solomon's Seal, on the other hand, is five-pointed and is not of Hebrew origin at all, but is Greek, and from ancient days has been reputed to have magical powers against evil and danger.

Your Baby and Mine

By MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

Anyone who talks or writes against spanking does it at her peril. It is a subject which heats the blood. The spanking parents resent any implication that they may be cruel or lacking in ingenuity.

Yet even the spanking parent often contends that she never spanks her children in anger. That seems to justify her conduct. If she is honest with herself she knows that unless she spanks when she is mad she never spanks at all. She has to be red-hot, or her emotion cools and she manages to think of other ways in which she can punish the young imp without taking a hand or a paddle to him.

So it's splendid advice which says: Never spank in anger. It accomplishes exactly the same end as if it said: Never spank.

Most spanking is unnecessary. Any smart child knows when he has made a mistake and he isn't likely to repeat the same offence again. That is unless he is brutally punished for it. Then he thinks how mean his mother or father is. He resents the pain and humiliation he has suffered and he feels these have paid for whatever he did to them. Now he is free to do as he pleases again. He's paid the bill for his misbehavior.

If, on the contrary, the parent takes it for granted that he didn't intend to be a little demon and when he knows what he did was wrong and that nice children do not act this way—well, how many children would act that way again?

Children try out misbehavior in a spirit of daring to see what happens. They refuse to go to sleep. They kick and hit adults and other children. They destroy their toys and clothes. They won't eat. They spill things. They made a loud and unnecessary noise. But children aren't angels. They couldn't grow up without experimenting with all kinds of behavior.

The punishment they may receive will be the more effective if it makes the child feel sorry but not mad, and if he sees the reason for what is done to him, rather than being treated to an emotional exhibition which is an enemy of reason.

If, when all other measures fail and fail, the mother tries a spanking, it may come as a salutary gesture if it remains just that, something dramatic, unusual and shocking. When it is used for everything and anything and expresses only uncontrolled parental emotion, it accomplishes nothing permanent or valuable.

Our leaflet, "Obedience and Punishment," may be had by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope with this request to Myrtle Meyer Eldred in care of this newspaper.

NEVER MIND THE PROMISES—

WHAT ARE WE GOING TO GET ?

M. J. COLDWELL,
CCF National Leader

"SHALL we go forward to Freedom, Security and Jobs for all . . . or back to the Unemployment, Low Farm Prices, and Poverty of the pre-war years? This is the issue of this election.

"Mr. King and Mr. Bracken are making extravagant promises, which they know they cannot keep. They still cling to policies which are bound to fail again as they did before.

"The CCF is a people's party . . . financed by farmers, workers and small business men . . . the only party free from domination by Big Business . . . free to serve the nation as no other party can.

"I pledge to you that a Federal CCF Government will leave nothing undone to guarantee Jobs, Freedom and Security to every Canadian."

M. J. Coldwell

? THIS under the Liberals

WE ARE CANADA'S LOST GENERATION

"Elect me on my record and experience during the PAST FIVE YEARS," says Mr. King.

But Mr. King has been in office TEN years. What of the FIRST FIVE years? Here's the Liberal record, 1935-40; breadlines; farm jobs at $5 a month; one million Canadians on relief!

If the Liberals couldn't provide jobs and security THEN, how can they do it NOW? They can't. Despite their promises, they are pledged to the old ways which will lead to depression and unemployment TOMORROW as surely as they did YESTERDAY.

? THIS under the Conservatives

Remember the "Bennett Camps" in the early thirties . . . the youth of Canada paid 20c a day for wasted labour . . . farmers destitute . . . workers idle while their families starved?

The Tory party is trying to make the people forget this record by a change of leader and a change of name, but it won't work. Bennett or Bracken—the Conservative party is the same creature of Big Business—is as reactionary as it ever was—the enemy of all progress for the common people.

Christ Church Wedding Held

At a choral wedding service Friday evening in Christ church, Miss Mary-Ina Greene, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D'Alton Ivan Greene, spoke marriage vows with PO. Sidney Donald Bryant, RCNVR, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney James Bryant all of Edmonton. The Rev. E. S. Ottley officiated.

The altar was attractively arranged with snapdragons, white lilacs and apple blossoms, and the pews were marked with sprays of lilacs tied with white ribbon.

The bridegroom has served for five years with the Canadian Navy, and has been with HMCS Assiniboine for nearly two years of that time.

Escorted to the altar by her father the bride wore a slipper length gown of white lace with an organdy ruffle forming the shoulder and low neckline, and an organdy ruffle edging the hem. The gown was cut on Princess lines, and the bride had long lace mittens which came to lily points over the hands. Her veil of white embroidered tulle was styled on train, and was held with a halo headdress.

PEARLS

An old-fashioned "choker" comprised of five strands of pearls was worn at her throat, with a similar bracelet on her wrists. Completing her ensemble she carried a bouquet of red roses and larkspur.

Matron of honor was Mrs. J. H. Woods, and bridesmaid was Miss Norma Bryant. The former chose a gown of pale pink sheer trimmed with palest blue velvet bows, and the latter was in white dotted Swiss organdy. Both gowns were styled alike with square necklines, short puffed sleeves, wide midriffs and full skirts. Both attendants wore elbow length gloves and had calot model hats with apple blossom trimmings. They carried colonial bouquets of mixed spring flowers.

Best man was Sgt. Jack H. Woods, RCAF, and ushers were AB. Fred Exham, RCNVR, and James Bryant. Soloist was Miss Jean Reilly, and at the console of the organ was Miss Dorothy Teape.

One hundred guests called at Christ church Parish hall after the ceremony, to wish the couple well.

Receiving with the wedding party, Mrs. Green wore a figured afternoon dress of pink and black, accessories of black and corsage of gardenias. Mrs. Bryant was attired in a navy blue ensemble complemented by cream accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

Mr. Ottley proposed a toast to the bride.

For their wedding trip to Calgary and Banff the bride changed to a dressmaker suit of American beauty red, white hat and gloves, and black patent shoes and bag. Her topcoat was black.

They will make their home in Edmonton temporarily.

Varsity Pair Wed In London

LONDON, Ont., June 9.—At the home of the bridegroom's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George Humphries, the marriage was solemnized here on June 2, of Miss Marguerite Irene Hayes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Hayes of Edmonton, and Lt. Keith A. Henry, Canadian Army, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Henry of Consort, Alta. The Rev. MacTavish officiated.

The ceremony took place before a mantle banked with bridal wreath and flanked by two large baskets of iris and peonies tied with bridal wreaths.

Well known in University circles here, the bride was graduated this spring with her degree of B.Sc., honors Physics. She received the Tegler scholarship when graduating from grade twelve, and was twice winner of the Governor General's award in grades eight and nine.

The bridegroom studied engineering at the University of Alberta and was awarded the Governor General's medal in grade nine, for the highest standing in the Coronation district.

WHITE SATIN

Gowned in white satin, a floor length gown with insets of white lace and white lace panels in the skirt, the bride made a pretty picture. A sweetheart neckline and long sleeves coming to lily points over the hands were other features of her dress. Her trailing veil was arranged to a coronet of gardenias and she carried a bouquet of red roses and white stalks. Her only piece of jewelry was a necklace of pearls.

Bridesmaids were Pte. Shirley Haynes, CWAC, and Pte. Marguerite Jones, CWAC, both of Edmonton. They wore slipper length gowns of pink sheer with headpieces of pink rosebuds and pink tulips. Completing their ensembles they carried bouquets of pink carnations and white stalks.

Best man was Lt. John MacPherson, Canadian Army, and usher was Pte. Bruce Padon, Canadian Army.

RECEPTION

A reception was held after the wedding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Humphries.

Mr. Humphries received in a navy blue ensemble. Mr. MacTavish proposed the toast to the bride.

The couple went to Brockville where the bridegroom completed his training at Officers' Training School. They will leave Saturday night for Consort to visit with the bridegroom's parents, and will later reside temporarily in Calgary where Lt. Henry has been posted to Currie barracks.

The bride travelled in a blue gabardine suit and white accessories.

The following statement has been furnished to the Edmonton West Liberal Association by a former member of another political group:

WHY I VOTE LIBERAL

UNDISPUTABLE FACTS BY A. S. P.

Nationally

As a Canadian first and last, I disregard any former political affiliation, it being my privilege to vote for a Party having proven itself capable of governing; a Party which has placed Canada in the front rank of nations and which, during years of stress and difficulty, has won for the Dominion unparalleled esteem of a war-torn world. Such is the achievement of the Liberal Government during its past regime.

Foreign Trade

Trade relations with other countries have been favorably constructed and under Liberal direction an era of prosperity lies ahead for Canada.

Agriculture

Agriculture has experienced its most prosperous era in Canadian history. Produce prices have been well maintained and orderly marketing capably directed by the Administration. The Farm Assistance Act has been of great benefit to all farmers.

Price Control

Through Price Control the Liberal Government has given Canada the lowest "cost of living" in the civilized world.
Inflation has been successfully combatted.

Family Allowance

The Family Allowance Act, put into effect by the Liberal Government, is the most forward social step yet introduced in the history of nations. Truly it is a step ahead for the man of moderate or small income.

Rehabilitation

Canadian unity has been maintained through a period of dangerous political controversy when every pretext, touching the most sacred feelings of our people has been played upon by Government opposition and gross misrepresentations made.
A rehabilitation programme second to none in the world is in effect for our returned service men and women.

War Profiteering

Wartime Housing

Thousands of families have been provided for by the Government housing acts where most needed.

Federal Loaning

Home building loans have been made available at minimum interest rates and are repayable over long terms.
The above could indeed be enlarged upon, but space forbids.

Shelves for Canned Foods Prove Prominent Part of Modern House

Did you see that advertisement last fall which pictured a housewife placing lucent jars of fruit and vegetables row on row in the neat racks of her storage cupboard? Well, now is the time to get your neat storage place ready for this year's batch which will soon be coming along.

Of course, the ideal type of canned goods shelf is just one jar wide, so that each single jar is at all times in view and at hand. This type of shelf, however, takes a large wall area and also shelves expertly measured so that there is no lost wall space above and below each jar.

CORNER TO SPARE

But what of the basement which has only a corner or so to spare, yet many jars both full and empty to store? With such a basement, the first thing to do is to look around it for a cool, dry spot; one which is dark for the sake of the canned goods, but has a good electric light available when needed. Since your well-chosen place is small, the type of storage used should be the most compact possible for efficiency.

The old-fashioned swing shelf is a floor-and-wall-space saver, since it hangs from the basement ceiling. Yet it is quite accessible, too, if suspended two feet or so out from the the wall, so that one can walk around it. A swing shelf must be strong enough to hold a considerable weight of full jars, and stout chains or timbers nailed to the cellar ceiling joists must be used to suspend it at about eye level.

A shelf of similar height placed in a corner of the basement in the usual way serves the same purpose as a swing shelf.

SPACE AVAIABLE

Underneath either of these shelves a sizeable floor and wall space is made available, where empty jars and canning equipment can be neatly stored. Thus all supplies for canning are together when needed.

This is the way they may be arranged in your cellar: First come two sturdy orange crates, stood on end side by side. These hold small items, such as boxes of jar lids and rubbers, paraffin and the old teapot for pouring it; special strainers, funnels, spoons, and wire baskets in a small covered carton; books of canning directions, labels, and the current canning record with pencil on a string for the addition of new items. On top of these orange crates are stored the preserving kettle and the pressure cooker, in strong fibreboard cartons to keep them out of the dust.

Near by stand our homemade cupboards for the storage of empty jars, made of two strong packing cases stood on end and fitted with rough shelves. As many of these homemade cupboards should be provided as are needed for the storage of the household stock of empty jars packed for convenience and cleanliness in plainly marked grocery cartons, according to size and type.

Two packing cases, about 30 inches wide by 40 inches high, have three shelves apiece. With two 8 or 12-inch cartons on each shelf and on top, each carton holding from 10 to a dozen jars, we are able to store from 100 to 120 empties in each of our home-made cupboards. Since jars are all placed in covered cartons, no cupboard doors are required.

INSPECT JARS

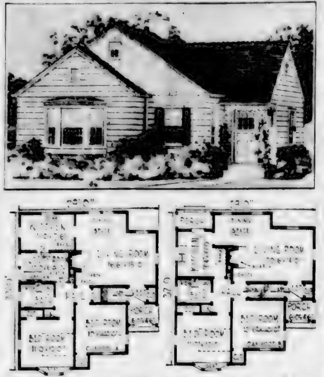
As the stock of fruit and vegetables is used, one inspects each jar carefully for nicks and cracks while washing, and test for seal if jar is spring type. Then into its labeled carton goes each clean and tested jar. What a short and simple matter it is at canning time to reach for exactly the right size and find it ready to use! And what a convenience to find everything for canning close at hand in one place, to say nothing of saving time at the year's busiest season.

—V—

Beets, often called an indicator of soil acidity, will not tolerate a very acid soil. If the beet crop is good, then the gardner knows his garden is not too acid for growing of other crops. A good sprinkling of garden lime, worked into the row before seed is sown, will reduce soil acidity. Beet soil should be enriched with a fertilizer strong in potash and weak in nitrogen. A 4-12-4 mixture is excellent.

The "OAKWOOD"

One of the 42 homes illustrated in The Bulletin's "Low Cost Homes" Booklet



This home shows a variation on the usual layout of modern homes. You will note that the bedrooms are in the front of the house, the kitchen and dining room in the rear. Nicely planned and laid out to use all available space. This and 41 other homes are shown in the booklet, "Low Cost Homes" obtainable from The Bulletin at the nominal cost of 50c, sent postage paid.

Succession Planting Starts Soon as First Crops Start to Grow

The sun shines brighter as the days pass and the alert gardener is aware that sprouting rows of beet, carrot, radish, lettuce and other quick-maturing vegetables are a signal for him to sow additional seeds for succession crops. Waiting until the seedlings are a couple of inches tall is simpler than trying to remember the rule of "sow again in three weeks."

Weeds will be pushing up with your seedlings, so get them out of the rows as quickly as possible. The job is best done on a bright day when you can easily distinguish weeds from seedlings. Take your hoe and cultivate between rows. Remember to cultivate lightly and not too close to the young seedlings for fear of disturbing the tiny roots.

When setting out husky young tomato, cabbage, pepper and other plants, it is best not to plant more than a half-inch deeper than they stood in the flats or in the pots. Spindly plants should be set two or three inches deeper to encourage a better root system.

—V—

Transplanting young crops from seedbeds or boxes of soil to the garden sometimes is not a success because the gardener fails to observe a few simple precautions. When plants are lifted from the original soil, do not pull the plants and break off the roots; loosen the soil and lift the plants out. Transplanting is most successful in the late afternoon rather than in the morning, when the plants would be exposed to hot sun all day. The plant should be set at the same depth in the garden as it was in the original soil. Each plant should be thoroughly watered immediately after planting.

Tender cabbage, cucumber melon and similar plants and seedlings thrive under protection of the "hot-cap," a miniature hothouse.

To produce quality vegetables, thinning of seedlings must be practiced so that roots are not crowded and plants can make rapid development. The following thinning distances are recommended for common garden crops: Beets, three to four inches; carrots, three inches; onions, one to four inches; parsnips, four to six inches; radishes, one to one and a half inches; turnips, four to six inches; lettuce, four to six inches for leaf, eight to 12 inches for head; chard, six to 12 inches; spinach, four to five inches.

Army Veteran Scores Charges Made by Tories

Charges made by the Progressive Conservative party during the federal election campaign regarding poor treatment accorded Canadian servicemen during the war were denied flatly Friday night by Bruce Massie, overseas army veteran, speaking at a Liberal rally in the Masonic Temple staged by the Twentieth Century Club of Edmonton. He returned to Canada recently after serving as a major with the Royal Canadian Artillery.

The rally was attended by about 75 persons. It was under chairmanship of Miss Mary Scullion, president of the Twentieth Century group.

Mr. Massie said, "I am one of those guys whom the Conservatives were telling about who were stabbed in the back, betrayed and double-crossed."

"There's no hole in my back," he continued, "I don't feel betrayed and I don't feel double-crossed."

IRKED BY COMMENT

The former officer told his audience that his division overseas "never lacked for anything." He declared that on his return from overseas, it made him "mad" to hear the irresponsible remarks of people who had never been there. He was particularly displeased with the statement that Canadian troops in Europe were being "bribed to fight the Japs."

"Ninety per cent of the men overseas are volunteers and proud of it. If we have to fight Japan they're ready to do it. Naturally they should get first preference on shipping to return home first for leaves," he said.

Dealing with the cries of Canadian disunity, he remarked that he saw a "batch of men dead over there, and the French ones were just as dead as the English ones."

Other speakers included H. A. Dyde, president of the West Edmonton Federal Liberal Association; Miss Lorette Carrigan, association vice-president; N. D. MacLean, KC, association vice-president; Mrs. Vera Cluny, school-trustee member of the Twentieth Century Club and Emrys Jones, speaking as a "plain citizen."

Hon. James A. MacKinnon, for whom the rally was held, spoke briefly. He referred to the Liberal candidate for Edmonton East, Mrs. Cora T. Casselman and said "a lot of the credit I get for work at Ottawa is equally due to Mrs. Casselman." He prophesied that the Liberal party would win an overall majority in Monday's election including a "substantial representation" from Ontario and a "good representation" from the other provinces.

The other speakers' remarks, in brief, were:

Miss Carrigan: During the war, this city has learned of the benefits to be derived from having a member of Parliament in this riding who is also a cabinet minister. Establishment here of air schools, Aircraft Repair and American army headquarters did not happen by accident.

Mr. MacLean: (Speaking to ex-servicemen in the audience) If you choose to throw in your lot with the Liberal party you'll have something to be proud of in the past and something to be proud of in the future.

Mr. Jones: The Canadian government is looked upon in the United States as an example; the leader of Canada's government (Mr. King) is looked upon as a great international statesman.

Mrs. Cluny: If the King government had no other record on which to stand than its price controls during the war, that would be enough to win her vote.

Col. Dyde: In five and a half years at national defence headquarters in Ottawa, he frequently heard Mr. MacKinnon praised for his wise counsel, his common sense and his good judgment.

RCAF COMMAND CHANGES HERE—Effective Sunday, Group Capt. V. H. Patriarche, AFC, chief air staff officer at Northwest Air Command, will take over command of the Edmonton station, succeeding Group Capt. D. A. Harding, OBE, AFC, in command here since August, 1944. Group Capt. Harding takes over command of the RCAF Aircrew Conditioning unit at Brandon. Group Capt. Patriarche is already well known in Edmonton, having been connected with flying in this city and the north before the war. He was once traffic manager with Canadian Airways, now part of Canadian Pacific Air Lines. Air Vice-Marshal T. A. Lawrence, air officer commanding Northwest Air Command, made the announcement of the command changes.

Opponents' Ballots in Monday's Vote

Mrs. Cora Casselman, Liberal candidate in Edmonton East riding in Monday's federal election is at least sure that if fifteen votes of people opposing her go into the ballot boxes on Monday, they will not count against her election.

There's a reason. Mrs. Casselman is the only candidate in East Edmonton who lives in the riding and has a vote there. All her opponents live in outside ridings and will have to cast their ballots in those ridings, having no interest in Edmonton East.

Jan Lakeman, Labor Progressive candidate opposing Mrs. Casselman votes in Urban Polling Division 3 of West Edmonton, together with four other members of the Lakeman family.

Lt. Col. H. B. Jamieson, ED, Progressive Conservative candidate, is registered in Poll 52 West Edmonton, with three other members of his family, and Ald. H. D. Ainlay, CCF candidate is in Poll 63, West Edmonton. There are two votes in the Ainlay family.

The fifth candidate in East Edmonton is Patrick H. Ashby, the Social Credit standard-bearer, who with his family resides in Wetaskiwin constituency and will cast their ballots there.

Brule Buildings Being Dismantled

The buildings on the townsite of Brule, 28 miles east of Jasper, have been purchased from the provincial government by S. Madsen of Mountain Park, it was learned today.

Mr. Madsen, in Edmonton this week, said in an interview he had completed purchase of the buildings from the province and work had already started on dismantling.

The buildings consist of three two-storey, nine-room dwellings; 55 one-storey, four-room houses; 12 one-storey, two-room dwellings; a two-storey apartment building, and a large tipple.

Mr. Madsen said the buildings are in excellent condition and are being carefully dismantled, the lumber being piled in units with each piece marked so that the buildings could be set up complete at a new location without difficulty.

He estimated there would be more than one million feet of lumber available consisting of: 50,000 feet of fir siding, 50,000 feet of cedar siding, 100,000 feet of fir timbers, 100,000 feet of fir flooring plus all windows and doors complete, two-by-fours and joists 2x8 and 2x10.

Asked regarding disposal, Mr. Madsen did not know whether the dwellings would be disposed of as separate units or whether the material would be sold in bulk.

He has returned to Brule to supervise dismantling work.

Ask Citizenship For Canadians Of Jap Origin

TORONTO, June 9.—(CP)—Full rights of citizenship for Canadians of Japanese origin are urged in a letter sent today to prime minister Mackenzie King, labor minister Humphrey Mitchell and M. J. Coldwell, national CCF leader, by the Fellowship of Reconciliation with headquarters here.

Among reasons for reported application of a large percentage of Japanese Canadians in British Columbia relocation centres to go to Japan after the war, are a sense of injustice at the denial to them of citizenship rights and the hazard involved in taking up their lives anew in central and eastern Canada, the letter said.

Former Airman Decides Upon News as Career

Laurie decided the life of a newsman was the life for him.

So as soon as he received an honorable discharge after nearly four years in the service, he returned to work with the Edmonton Bureau of The Canadian Press under the direction of Jack Sullivan.

GOT PROMOTION

Young Graham started back with a promotion. He divides his duties between the copy desk and the teletype machines.

"I decided while overseas that the life of a newsman was the only one for me," he said.

"Of course I miss my pals in the air force but I was lucky to come back to work in the same office where I worked for two years before joining up. I knew all the gang and they are simply tops. They have made me feel right at home from the first day I came back."

Graham added he considers the welcome a fellow receives on returning from the service a "most important factor" in the difficult readjustment period.

Graham also misses the "travelling" a fellow does in the service and finds it a little hard to stick in one spot after being in many parts of Europe.

PUT IN BANK

The former airman has a tidy little sum in gratuities and re-establishment credit coming his way "I'm going to keep most of that in the bank and invest it later," he said.

"Canada is the finest country in the world. A fellow finds that out after being away from it a few years and seeing what things are like elsewhere. I do think we can learn much from the British people about how to live and enjoy ourselves, but for a country to live and work in, well nothing compares to Canada," Graham said.

Born in Edmonton, W. Laurie Graham attended separate elementary and high schools in Edmonton.

JOINS RCAF

He joined the RCAF here on August 27, 1941, as a teletype operator and went overseas after brief training in Winnipeg.

Arriving in Britain he was attached to No. 6 RCAF Bomber Command, with headquarters near London. Later he became a code and cipher clerk, and went to the tactical air force while preparations were being made for the great D-Day invasion.

He was stationed near London and at one time the airfield where he worked was heavily bombed by the Nazis. On another occasion a Nazi bomb fell less than a block from the building he was staying in in London.

He was discharged on May 22 last. Parents of Laurie, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Graham, reside in Edmonton. Sub-Lt. Thomas Graham, a former member of The Edmonton Bulletin news staff, is now serving as a public relations officer in the RCNVR.

Gas Rate Probe Is Held Up Until Commissioner Back

CALGARY, June 9.—(CP)—In the absence of Dr. E. H. Boomer, now on a mission in Germany for the Dominion government, no further evidence can be taken by the commission charged with determining Turner Valley gas rates, according to a majority judgment handed down by the Alberta Appeal Court here yesterday.

G. M. Blackstock, KC, chairman of the board of public utilities, and Dr. Boomer chairman of the petroleum and natural gas conservation board of Alberta, were appointed a two-man commission, with Mr. Blackstock as chairman, to set rates which may be charged by Valley gas producers for their products.

Expect Increase Parcel Deliveries to Armed Forces

OTTAWA, June 9—(CP)—The post office department said yesterday that with cessation of European hostilities it expected an increase in the number of undeliverable parcels for the forces in that theatre and announced a plan whereby those sending such parcels can designate an alternative recipient.

The department said such parcels would be distributed to the Canadian armed forces if no alternative recipient was designated and the addressee could not be located because of troop movements.

THEIR RECORD!

Under Old Party Government for 10 Years Before the War We Had:

- 1,500,000 on Relief
- Breadline "Regimentation"
- Relief Bureau "Bureaucracy"
- The "Freedom" of Unemployment

It was a world war and national control of production — not Liberal policies which brought prosperity.

This was a parade of heroes of the Last War—and some who have become heroes of this one—in an Alberta city under the King government.

A few months later many of these men were off the bread lines — in uniform. Old Party governments have "no money" for peace-time jobs.

By your vote on Monday you will decide whether men returning from this war will come back to the regimentation of the breadlines under an Old Party government, or to the freedom of a steady job under the C.C.F. Program of Plenty.

HERE IS THE C.C.F. PROGRAM:

1. Keep the industries running to supply Canadians with a high standard of living.
2. Provide jobs for all at useful work to improve the Canadian standard of living.
3. Guaranteed farm prices that will give farm families a fair share of the national income.
4. Social Security for all, old age pensions at 60, free health services.

The Saskatchewan C.C.F. Government Has KEPT Its Promises!

Are You Easily Scared?

Big business is counting on frightening you into putting its political servants back into power to give you the kind of poverty government you had before the war. Remember, the people who are paying for the anti-C.C.F. blitz are the people who gave us unemployment and poverty in pre-war years. They think if you can be scared against the C.C.F. you will forget to be scared of the real dangers which they have in store for you. They are counting on you being easily scared.

They Weren't Scared!

First returns from the votes of overseas soldiers in the Ontario election show that men in the European area from the Toronto constituencies voted overwhelmingly for the C.C.F. They gave the C.C.F. a majority in 14 of the 17 seats. At that rate if the civilians had voted as the soldiers did the C.C.F. would have won more than 70 seats in Ontario! They couldn't be scared by the anti-C.C.F. Blitz because they know that the C.C.F. is fighting over here for what they've been fighting for over there.

Japan Premier Warns Gravest Crisis at Hand

tatorship on Japan. It is expected that the bill will pass, "after short but earnest deliberations."

Leaders in Japan say that invasion of the Japanese homeland is now almost a foregone conclusion, and they are preparing the Japanese people for a "decisive battlefield decision right at home."

Under the new order the Japanese government will rule by emergency decrees, and Premier Suzuki emphasized that it was necessary if Japan was to "fight to the last," the only alternative left to the nation in view of the Allied demand for unconditional surrender.

FIGHT TO LAST

"The enemy's boastful talks about the unconditional surrender of Japan mean nothing but the outright death of all 100,000,000 people in this country," he said. "We have no alternative but to fight to the last."

Suzuki made the usual protestations of "peaceful intentions in Asia," and said there was no one in the world "who more earnestly desires world peace and the welfare of humanity than Emperor Hirohito."

It was with the "utmost regret that he found the United States at war with Japan, he said, and added that "Japan was fighting solely for the defence of our empire and for the stabilization of East Asia against the inordinate ambitions of the United States and Great Britain."

GIVES NO REASON

He gave no reason for the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor, the Philippines, Hong Kong and Singapore, which started the war, but claimed Japan was being attacked and was not the attacker.

He expressed the gravest concern for the future and the way the war was going against Japan.

And the Premier's fears were well grounded. The Japanese homeland was even then rocking under a three-pronged Superfortress bombardment of key centres, while on the Chinese mainland, in the Philippines, in Borneo and in Okinawa the reports were all of reverse after reverse with heavy Japanese losses.

PREDICTS BOOM.—F. H. James, well-known city contractor and realtor, who on Saturday predicted a post-war building boom here.

The Okinawa situation was an especially bitter pill for the Japanese to swallow, and Naval Minister Yonai reluctantly admitted to the Diet "that the situation on Okinawa is adverse."

BEING PUSHED BACK

"We have fallen somewhat short of securing full command of the air, and our ground forces are gradually being pushed back by the enemy" was his humble understatement of the facts.

Okinawa is already lost to the Japanese but the slaughter of the "suicide stand" garrison continues. All along the southern tip of the island, rockets, bombs and heavy naval and artillery shells are being poured into the Japanese defence positions as ground forces moved into place for the final assault on the Yaeju-Dake escarpment, rising in places to 500 feet.

American troops and tanks made a new landing yesterday behind the Japanese defenders in the smaller of the two pockets into which the garrison has been split.

Now the Americans and Japanese are fighting it out with grenades and flame throwers all around the perimeter of the two Japanese pockets. The enemy is even putting women into the line to hurl grenades at the advancing Americans, but despite the fanatical resistance the attackers are making gains all along the line.

DIG INTO FORTRESS

The Japanese have dug into the strong stone fortresses that they are using and are making it a no-quarter battle. American officers leading the attack admit that the final phase in Okinawa will be tough, and that the fighting will be bitter and bloody to the very end. But the time is running out for the Japanese and the whole garrison will be wiped out before many hours.

On the Chinese mainland the Chinese high command delivered a series of heavy blows at the invaders. Heavy fighting at Chungchingfu on the border of French Indo-China resulted in the capture of that town and enemy remnants falling back toward Caobang are being hotly pursued. Japanese losses were heavy.

Chinese troops were also threatening Mingkian, 30 miles from the Indo-China border and the important town of Szelo was taken at bayonet point.

REPULSE FOUR ATTACKS

Local Chinese militia troops took Lungchow, another near border town and in Kwangsi the Chinese repulsed four Japanese counter-attacks at Ishan on the Kwangsi-Kweichow railroad, 43 miles west of Liuchow. This railway is the main escape route for Japanese forces at Ishan, and again the Japs lost heavily.

Chinese forces also took Tatang, a town on the Indo-China highway and moved into position to cut the road west of Liuchow.

The Chinese high command also announced that the Japanese drive south from Nangkang, in southern Kiangsi province, toward Sinfeng, 100 miles east of Kukong, the Japanese-occupied provincial capital of Kwantung province, had been halted, and Chinese troops are now threatening the eastern flank of the Canton-Hankow corridor.

In the Borneo area Allied troops have landed on Labuan island off the north coast of Borneo, and Borneo itself has been heavily bombarded from the sea and by air. Japanese coastal defences were obliterated and air assaults on airfields, cratered runways, destroyed grounded planes, and fired airfield installations.

Labuan, in the China Sea, is almost directly across northern Borneo from Tarakan island which Australian and Dutch troops have virtually cleared after a month's heavy fighting.

TO NEW POST.—D. C. Boyes, who has been appointed to the post of assistant to the director of purchases and chairman of the Alberta Marketing Board, George A. Clash. He has had widespread experience with the farm implement business.

GAIN IN PHILIPPINES

In the Philippines fighting American divisions reported steady gains in clean-up drives on Luzon and Mindano islands.

On Mindano U.S. 24th Division units launched a drive towards the key town of Baguio and are now within two miles of that objective. Other Mindanao forces are within a mile of Silae, a train junction east of Malaybalay.

In northern Luzon 37th Division infantry pressed north from Bayombong in the Cagayan valley, overrunning the Japanese headquarters in their advance.

A revitalized Chinese air force, equipped with American planes and manned by American and British trained personnel, also took to the air yesterday, blasting at targets throughout Japanese occupied China.

In their sweeps they destroyed or damaged more than 130 buildings, 77 boats of various types and a score of supply junks. They also shot up and damaged supply stores and communications centres in Kwantung, Huphen, Hunan and Shanshi provinces.

WIDESPREAD ATTACKS

In widespread attacks the Chinese attacked Kiukiang on the Lower Yangtze, destroyed two warehouses, starting fires and damaging nine Japanese boats and 10 junks.

In the Siang Tungfeng area of Hunan province, the Chinese planes demolished 120 buildings and set fire to eight garages and 31 enemy transport boats.

Three enemy steamers were burned at Kukong in north Kwangtung province. Twenty-nine barges were destroyed and 17 damaged and six large junks were bombed and burned.

At Ligling, a former American air base in Hunan province, the raiders damaged a large enemy ferry boat.

A large enemy boat, three smaller vessels, six junks and six enemy warehouses were destroyed at Ichang in western Huphen province.

Two bridges, one locomotive and 20 passenger coaches were destroyed in a raid on the Peiping-Hankow rail line.

SUICIDE ATTACKS

Japanese air activity was confined to the stepping up of the suicide attacks on American warships off Okinawa. Two small ships were damaged, but 67 of the raiders were shot down.

Tokyo reported large concentrations of Allied warships, transports and landing barges around Okinawa and the Kerama islands, and stated that this indicated another major landing in the near future. Tokyo's guess was that either the Chinese mainland or the Japanese homeland would be the new invasion point.

In Burma, jungle troops of Lt.-Gen. Sir William Slim's British 14th Army have driven ahead at some points to within 60 miles of the Thailand frontier behind which Japan has her major base in southeast Asia.

The Japanese have been falling back to this base since their defeat in Burma.

Japanese getting through to the Shaw hills leading into Thailand are being harried all the way. Other forces cut off west of the Mandalay-Rangoon line are massing for a determined break-through attempt northeast of Pegu, about 100 miles north of Rangoon. Their objective is to reach the Shan hills.

Indian troops are fighting 18 miles east of Toungoo, 110 miles north of Pegu, while Japanese stragglers trapped west of the Mandalay-Rangoon line—south of Toungoo — are grouping in strength southeast of Prome, and, farther south, east of Letpaden.

The massing of Japanese troops northwest of Pegu is believed the most effective threat to the strength of the Allied line and a major battle is believed shaping. Allied troops have already repulsed several brief encounters in the area.

PROGRESSIVE-CONSERVATIVE
VIEWPOINTS

Mackenzie King and his followers claim that the Liberal Government has "much in mind" for the immediate future.

HOW TRUE!

The King Government — most of which has been banished from the fold — has much ONLY in mind ... EXCEPT the one conspicuously-active policy — that of taking Canada's finest, bravest young men, and SHIPPING THEM FROM EUROPE to the PACIFIC; while holding an army of 45,000 Home Defence Heroes, who live in safety and security, in Canada.

The Purpose? To give one Province what it wants (ignoring the demands of eight Provinces). Ontario people have stated THEIR views, and now — only BRACKEN can gain a clear majority in Ottawa.

LET'S WIN WITH BRACKEN!

Members of the Optimist Club will play their annual baseball game against the Optimist Juniors Thursday evening. The club's regular luncheon meeting has been cancelled for that day.

J. Gordon Sinclair, Edmonton artist, will be guest speaker at the Tuesday evening meeting of the Edmonton Y's Men's Club. He will illustrate his talk with examples of his own work.

PRIZE HEIFER BRINGS $4,600 AT AUCTION—Highest price for a single animal, $4,600, was paid by Senator Donat Raymond, Vaudreuil, Que., for a heifer consigned by Leo Baker and Sons, Lambeth, at an auction held in Brampton, Ont. Officials said it was the highest price paid at a national cattle sale since 1920. Senator Raymond also paid second highest price, $3,100, for a seven-year-old cow of Hays Ltd., of Calgary, Alta. In above photo, Danna Thomson, Mason, Mich., shows the prize-winning heifer. Prize animals from Alberta, Ontario, Quebec and Prince Edward Island herds were sold and the sales arena was jammed with more than 2,000 buyers. Buyers were present from all parts of the Dominion and also from the U.S.

HEGLER'S HOUSES

WE SHOULD SOON HAVE SUMMER
WHEN WINTER COMES

Are you going to be living in a nice, warm, comfortable home of your own?

YOU CAN

If you do something about it. If you don't, it will be another scramble this fall and many will be too late to be enjoying the nice house they should have.

DO IT NOW

We are house specialists and can give most excellent service when buying a house. Having been in business many years our listings are large, and we are in a position to give you a great variety of choice, in almost any part of the city.

OUR SPECIAL

Today is a very pretty stucco six-room bungalow with an attractive sewing room. Built pre-war and 12 years old it is of good appearance and a solid honest house all the way. Beautiful living room with fireplace and radiant, well lighted dining room, two good bedrooms and one extra size bedroom with fireplace and radiant. Thick maple floors. Full basement. Hot air furnace, gas. Garage. Early possession. There is no better built or lower priced six-room bungalow in the city at $5,250, and part of it can be financed. On pavement, in Virginia Park.

INSURANCE—ALL KINDS

Fire insurance. Auto insurance. Truck insurance. We write all and every kind of insurance including sickness and accident. Mercantile and personal property floater.

ARE YOU UNDER-INSURED?

Our records show that seven out of every ten persons owning property are under-insured. How many know when their insurance expires? Check up on your policies, let us know and we will tell you what protection you should have.

DON'T BLAME YOUR AGENT

An ironical situation frequently develops when claims become payable to an under-insured person. He often blames the agent who handled the business for not pointing out his under-insured position. We are authorized agents for Alberta Govt. Insurance and have a number of other good companies who pay all claims promptly.

IF IT'S ANYTHING ABOUT INSURANCE

Just call or phone Mr. W. H. Souch, Insurance Manager, and you will receive instant and courteous service.

THE CITY OF EDMONTON

Notice of Proposed Local Improvements

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given pursuant to the provisions of the Edmonton Charter, that after the expiration of two weeks from the last publication of this notice (unless sixty per cent of the owners of the lands affected representing at least one-half in value of the said lands, petition the Council against the same within two weeks after the said last publication) the Municipal Council of The City of Edmonton intends to undertake the undermentioned works as Local Improvements, the whole cost, except as hereinafter specified, of the said works including work done on street and lane intersections, to be paid for by way of, (1) Special frontage assessment by a Unit Rate per front foot or per Square Foot per annum. (2) Special Local Benefit assessment by an Annual Rate per lot, as variously stated in the Schedules hereinafter specified, upon all lands except street and lane intersections fronting or abutting on the said works respectively.

SCHEDULE "A"

Showing proposed works to be paid for by way of special frontage assessment at a Unit Rate as undernoted.

Gen. Crerar Reviews Troops

Canadians Make "Last Advance"

By WILLIAM BOSS

DOORN, Holland, June 9.—(CP)—Enacting a mighty finale to a saga of action in Sicily, Italy and Holland, Brig. W. W. Murphy's 1st Canadian Armored Brigade rolled in a symbolic last advance here yesterday, guns firing and Mosquito bombers barely skimming their turrets.

More than 250 tanks and self-propelled guns advanced 28 abreast and 10 deep towards the reviewing stand where Gen. Crerar, 1st Canadian Army commander, stood. They churned the undulating, gorse-covered plain north of this town into an immense dust mound.

It was the troopers' last ride. The thunderous roar died as the drivers killed their motors. Then, leaving the gunners manning their 75-mm. and 17-pounder guns, the remainder of the crews leaped from their Shermans and formed up behind the Calgary Regiment guard of honor under Capt. Jim Quinn of Saskatoon, already drawn up facing the armor.

Infant's Body Is Found Covered With Bruises

BRONTE, Ont., June 9.—(CP)—"I have never seen so many bruises on a human body in my 25 years' experience as a pathologist, during which I have conducted some 7,800 autopsies," Dr. William J. Deadman of Hamilton said Thursday night, at an inquest into the death June 1 of three-year-old Caroline Usitalo.

The child's body was found in the home here of Wilfrid A. Girouard, 28, and her mother, Mrs. Jean Usitalo, after she was reported to have fallen downstairs. Girouard is being held for questioning.

A coroner's jury found Caroline's death caused by a severe rupture of the liver followed by a hemorrhage "caused by blows or force unknown."

FORTY MAJOR BRUISES

Dr. Deadman said only three of 40 major bruises on the child's body appeared to be recent, and others seemed to be from four days to a week old with two or three older still.

The fatal rupture could have been caused by a violent kick with a heavy boot or by the little girl falling violently on an object of limited size, he testified. Only three of the bruises could have resulted from falling down stairs.

Mrs. Usitalo and her brother, Kenneth Fox, testified that Girouard had repeatedly beaten the child with great violence using a heavy strap, that he had picked her up by the hair of her head, thrown her against the top of a wood box, hurled her on the floor, kicked her, beaten her with his hands and threatened to kill her. They said Girouard was alone with the child in the house at the time of her death.

The mother, who is separated from her husband, said she wanted to "put Caroline in a home because I couldn't stand to see her being abused."

COULDN'T STOP ABUSE

"I couldn't stop him abusing her because he'd turn on me and hit me, and treat Caroline twice as bad."

"On one occasion he held her in [illegible] by her hair until he pulled some of her hair out. He strapped her with all his force on the body while he held her there".

Financial Group Back In Canada

OTTAWA, June 9—(CP)—A Canadian financial delegation including Graham Towers, governor of the Bank of Canada has arrived back in Ottawa after a visit to London where it was understood they discussed with British treasury officials proposals that Canada extend credits to Britain to help her buy North American goods.

Riverdale Group Hears Address

N. B. James, MLA, addressed a meeting of the Riverdale Social Credit Group on Thursday evening at St. Matthew's Church parish hall. His subject was "Taxation—Why?"

Following his address, Mr. James held a question period.

Grayson Dodd contributed piano selections to the program and women members of the organization served tea.

Gets Two Months

The plea that he was required to work at his farm home failed to impress Magistrate C. D. LaNauze at Lacombe Friday and William Matson, 23-year-old Iola, district conscientious objector, was sentenced to two months imprisonment. He was found guilty of failing to report as ordered to an alternative service camp. At the end of his prison sentence, Matson will be sent by police to the Kananaskis forestry camp at Seebe.

The Edmonton Public School board will meet Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the Civic block.

Province to Aid Calgary Housing

Providing the buildings are equipped with modern household facilities the Alberta government will place the premises used for No. 2 RCAF Wireless School in Calgary at the disposal of the City of Calgary for the relief of the housing shortage, it was announced Saturday by Hon. R. Earl Ansley, minister of education.

The buildings, on government property, adjacent to the Provincial Technical school, are wanted to provide housing for returning war veterans.

The education department would like the buildings moved to another location but if this is not practical they could be used as temporary housing providing the city agrees they be equipped with modern conveniences.

The buildings have not yet been declared surplus by War Assets Corporation. Some buildings of the former No. 2 Wireless school have already been turned over to the army and the department of veterans' affairs.

The Alberta government takes the stand that war veterans are entitled to the best type of housing, hence the insistence on modern[illegible]

Plan Agreements With Provinces For Farm Labor

OTTAWA, June 9—(CP)—The minister of labor has been authorized by order-in-council to enter into agreements with the provinces for "the organization and use of agricultural manpower in each province" with payments by the Dominion on a dollar-for-dollar basis with the provinces but not to exceed $800,000 in the total, it was announced [illegible]

In a statement the Labor department said agreements already were under negotiation with the provinces and a good deal of work of organizing the Dominion-provincial farm labor program has already been carried through.

Proposed agreements will follow the pattern of agreements in effect between the Dominion and the provinces in earlier war years.

TODAY'S MARKETS

Prices For Rye Prove Irregular

WINNIPEG, June 9—(CP)—Rye futures prices moved irregularly in dull trading today on the Winnipeg grain exchange and at the close were ⅛ to ½ cent lower. July closed at $1.51¼.

Small gains were recorded early in the session, but prices eased later when offerings increased and the market lacked support.

There was no wheat export today but sales of Canadian oats to the United States were placed at 1,000,000 bushels.

Local Produce

BUTTER PRICES

No. 1, 34½; No. 2, 32½; No. 3, 3[illegible].

CREAM PRICES

Prices for cream delivered to Edmonton creameries: Special grade, 45; No. 1, 44; No. 2, 38; off grade, 33.

All prices include government bonus of 10c to farmers.

EGG PRICES

Dealers now paying to country shippers: A large, 29; A medium, 27; A pullet, 21; grade B, 24; grade C, 18-19.

Wholesale to retail: A large, 36-37; A medium, 34-35; A pullet, 28-29; B, 30-31; grade C, 26-27.

Retail to consumers: A large, 43-44; A medium, 41-42; A pullet, 35-36; grade B, 37-38; grade C, 31-32.

This egg market remains practically unchanged from last week. Reports received from registered stations show a further decrease in receipts of approximately 5 per cent from the preceding week. The general quality is good and the percentage of grade B and C eggs is heavy. It is generally considered quality has now reached its lowest point for the season. Offerings through the Special Products Board for the week consisted of one car of [illegible] to storage for fall export [illegible] cars for drying and one [illegible] for future drying. Two carlots for fall shipment are being inspected today which will complete allocation under this contract. The accumulation of Grade C was relieved by the movement of two carlots, one to Winnipeg and one to Saskatoon.

POULTRY PRICES

Generally the live and dressed poultry market remains rather inactive. The only outside shipment reported is 80 boxes turkeys to Montreal. Current receipts are about adequate to meet the local demand. Dealers' quotations remain unchanged from last report.

HATCHERY OUTLOOK

This week's summary is based on reports received from 14 operators, [illegible] egg capacity of [illegible]. Total eggs set by these operators during the current year is 1,656,626 and total [illegible] for the same period is [illegible] 866. Average hatchability for the past week is 66[illegible] per cent.

The season is fast drawing to a close and total capacity in use at the present time is less than 30 per cent. Majority of operators will discontinue operations with the coming off of the present hatch. Sales have continued good for all breeds and any carry-over will be exceedingly light. The main feature has been the demand for cockerels and the demand continues brisk at present.

PROMOTED.—PO. Jeff Pryce, RCAF, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Pryce of 10107 81 avenue, has received his commission overseas, according to word received Saturday by his parents. An air gunner with No. 199 Squadron, the officer has been overseas for the last 18 months. Prior to that time, he served as a ground crew electrician. A brother, Capt. Ben Pryce, is serving with the Canadian Army in Europe and is expected home in August.

New York Stocks

NEW YORK, June 9—(AP)—Stocks loafed over a slightly irregular area in today's market with scattered favorites edging forward while many leaders did little or nothing. Timid bidding still was based on visions of peacetime prosperity and the belief reconversion pains would be less than most anticipated. Selling persisted, however, because of expectations of a [illegible] technical correction and [illegible] over possible Washington moves to stem speculation and [illegible] regarding international [illegible] was felt [illegible] have market repercussions. Dealings were [illegible] and transfers of around 5[illegible] shares were among the lightest since early Apr.

JACK RAE

City Business Man Opens New Store

Edmontonians are becoming more "time conscious," to judge by the rush of work which this week had surrounded Jack Rae, well-known watch repair expert in Edmonton, who has set up new headquarters in the Sample Shoe Store, 10128 Jasper avenue.

Mr. Rae who has been in the watch repair trade in this city for 25 years, said the average repair now takes less time than it has during the war years with intricate and specialized machinery becoming available.

Mr. Rae started his career as a youth in England. He started practicing in Edmonton 25 years ago with Ash Brothers. Later he was associated with D. A. Kirkland, P. R. Thomas, Henry Birks and Sons and for 17 years worked with Irving Kline.

He has also worked his trade on the west coast and in the United States.

He opened his new premises last April, and stipulates that all his work is guaranteed. "If I can't guarantee a job I don't tackle it," he said.

For the last five years he has served with the 2nd (Reserve) Battalion Edmonton Fusiliers, and is a member of No. 77 AF and AM.

Parliament Houses Bombed Dozen Times

LONDON, June 9—(CP)—Bombs hit the houses of parliament 12 times during the war, killing three persons and injuring 15, Col. Clifton Webb, Speaker of the House of Commons, disclosed last night at a farewell party for air raid defenders.

Says LPP Party Is Responsible Ont. CCF Rout

PRINCE ALBERT, Sask., June 9—(CP)—M. J. Coldwell, CCF national leader, said in an election address last night that the "tremendous confusion caused in industrial centres by Labor-Progressive candidates" had been a factor in the defeat of the CCF in the Ontario provincial election on Monday.

Answering a question asked by a member of his audience, Mr. Coldwell said that CCF defeat was due to "vast expenditures" by financial interests which opposed the CCF, "The cry of get behind Drew and beat the CCF," the Labor-Progressive activities and lack of sufficient CCF organization.

The CCF in Ontario had been "a little bit too well satisfied" with the gains it made in 1943 provincial election. Saskatchewan, which had a CCF provincial government, should take warning and avoid complacency.

OUT TO DESTROY CCF

The Labor-Progressive Party had been out to destroy the CCF in Ontario and its candidates had thought they were helping the Liberals. The Labor-Progressives, or Communists, now were following a certain party line which would be changed within six months, with "another somersault", said Mr. Coldwell.

Speaking in the constituency represented in parliament for 19 years by Prime Minister Mackenzie King, the CCF leader said the Ontario election "shows the power or organized reaction in Canada."

The majority of soldiers, sailors and airmen overseas were supporting the CCF. Press reports had revealed that servicemen in the European theatre had voted for the CCF in 14 of the 17 ridings in "Tory Toronto," but then the other results were delayed until after Monday, Dominion election voting day, because they would reveal even greater majorities for the CCF, he said.

U.S. Appeal Court Upholds Seizures

CHICAGO, June 9.—(AP)—The United States Circuit Court of Appeals yesterday upheld the government in its seizure Dec. 28 of facilities of Montgomery Ward and Company in Chicago and six other cities, reversing a Jan. 27 Federal District Court ruling.

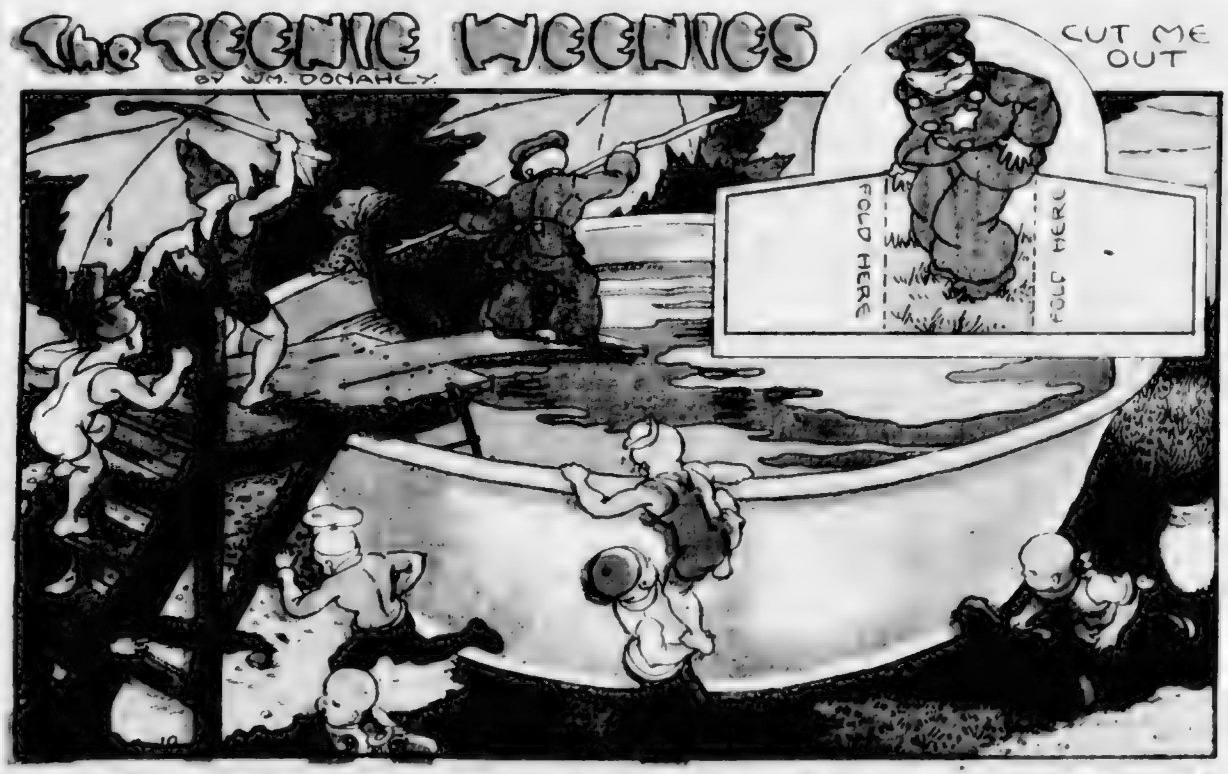
AN ODD VISITOR



THE Teenie Weenies have a lot of fun splashing around in the old sauce dish which they have made into a swimming pool. The dish is no larger than the average cereal bowl from which big people eat their breakfast food, but it is large enough to make an excellent place for the little people to swim. There is a certain amount of excitement centered around the pool, too, for many birds and animals come there to drink and all sorts of objects fall into the water.

Once a dog drank the pool completely dry. When the birds bathe there they splash most of the water out of the dish. An occasional worm or bug gets into the pool and has to be fished out. Leaves from the overhanging bushes fall into the water and they must be taken out, for there isn't much swimming space when a big leaf is floating in the dish. The Teenie Weenies never can tell just what they will find when they go for a swim, but the other day they found a most unusual visitor in the pool.

The Turk, the Sailor and the Dunce had put on their tiny bathing suits and had gone to the pool for a swim. They climbed the steps to the diving platform which the little folks had built up to the edge of the dish and there, swimming around as though he owned the pool, paddled a small turtle. The turtle had managed to crawl in during the night and, of course, no Teenie Weenie would swim in the pool while it was there even though it was a very small turtle.

The three little men set up a loud shouting, trying to scare the turtle out of the dish. The noise brought other Teenie Weenies running to the pool, but in spite of all their noise and gestures the Teenie Weenies could not make the turtle leave the water. At last the Policeman found a long twig and, walking out onto the diving platform, he prodded the turtle until it finally started to crawl up the side of the dish. In the general excitement the Dunce threw a burned match at the turtle, but his aim was poor. The match struck the Policeman on the back of his fat little neck and knocked him off the springboard right into the water. The turtle wiggled over the edge of the dish dropped to the ground and waddled off into the thick underbrush toward the creek.

The Policeman wasn't hurt, but he did get completely soaked. His uniform had to be hung out on a Teenie Weenie clothesline to dry and he was very angry at the Dunce.

"There ought to be a law to keep that fool Dunce from throwing matches," the angry Policeman told the General.

HA HA! YOU'RE IT, DAISY!
LOOK OUT! DAISY'S IT!
CAN'T CATCH ME!
GEE! I DON'T KNOW WHEN I'VE HAD SO MUCH FUN! WHY, I HAVEN'T EVEN THOUGHT O' OLD MRS. B-H FOR WEEKS!
HEY! WE'VE GOT COMPANY!
OH! IT'S MISS KUMQUAT!
BUT WHO IS THAT WITH HER?
OH OH! IT'S TH' CHIEF FROM BACK IN PIRATE COVE! I SHOULD HAVE KNOWN IT! SHE'S SENT HIM TO BRING ME BACK!
I'VE GOT TO GET AWAY - OR HIDE! TH' CHIEF'S O.K. BUT IF HE TAKES ME BACK SHE'LL K-K-KILL ME!
B-B-BUT IT'S NO USE-- IF HE FOUND ME HERE, HE'D FIND ME ANYWHERE! HE'S SEEN ME NOW...
HELLO, ANNIE! MIGHTY SORRY I HAD TO DO THIS! I'VE COME TO TAKE YOU BACK-
I KNOW, CHIEF-- I FIGGERED MRS. B-H WOULD GET TH' POLICE OUT AFTER ME --
EH? WELL, SHE DID, IN A WAY-- THE WARRANT SAYS YOU'RE WANTED FOR HER MURDER!
MURDER? WHAT? IS - IS SHE DEAD? LEAPIN' LIZARDS!
I MUST WARN YOU, ANNIE, THAT ANYTHING YOU SAY MAY BE USED AGAINST YOU!
EH? ME? OH! THEY THINK I KILLED HER? THEY MUST BE CRAZY!
WHY, TH' LAST I SAW O' HER, SHE WAS CHASIN' ME WITH A BLACKJACK, TRYIN' HER BEST TO MURDER ME!
HM-M-M! THAT'S ABOUT THE WAY I FIGURED IT. WELL, GET YOUR THINGS, ANNIE

HE'S BUSY NOW. CAN I DO ANYTHING?
I'D LIKE TO SEE HIM PERSONALLY.
OH... I'LL TELL HIM.
A BLOND TO SEE ME? PLATINUM?
NO, BRASS!
I AM CALLING ON YOU IN THE INTEREST OF THAT WONDERFUL NEW GRANDSON OF YOURS, MR. WALLET.
NO, REALLY?
MY COMPANY ISSUES A POLICY WHICH INSURES AGAINST BRUISES, SPRAINS, BROKEN WINDOWS, LOW REPORT CARDS AND LOST DOGS.
BUT THAT IS UP TO HIS FATHER.
I CALL ONLY ON GRANDFATHERS. THEY HAVE A MUCH BETTER UNDERSTANDING OF THE HAZARDS OF CHILDHOOD.
I WANT TO TALK IT OVER WITH MY WIFE.
PHYLLIS, THE LADY IS SELLING—
WE DON'T WANT ANY. I'LL HANDLE HER.
NO, WE DON'T NEED ANY. I STOCKED UP ON ALL THOSE THINGS EARLY IN THE WAR
BUT, MRS —
EVEN IF YOU'RE ABLE TO GET SOME TO SELL, THE QUALITY ISN'T THERE ANY MORE. BESIDES, I HAVE PLENTY FOR THE DURATION.
BUT THERE ARE SOME IMPORTANT POINTS—
POINTS? I KNEW IT. IT TAKES POINTS FOR EVERYTHING. WE HAVEN'T A ONE TO SPARE, AND NO CUPBOARD OR REFRIGERATOR SPACE. SORRY!
YOU'RE TOO EASY, WALT. YOU'VE GOT TO OUTSELL THEM.

SURE, IT'S ME! WHO WAS YOU EXPECTIN' SANTY CLAUS?
WELL, NO, NOT EXACTLY, MOON. ONLY EMMA'S COUSIN ED IS USING YOUR BED.
DON'T WORRY. I'LL TOSS HIM OUT OF THAT.
THAT WOULD SUIT ME JUST DANDY, BUT I WOULD ADVISE YOU TO HANDLE COUSIN ED WITH KID GLOVES.
I UNDERSTAND WHEN ED HITS A MAN - HE KNOWS IT.
THAT'S WHERE MY AND HIS METHODS DIFFER, PLUSHIE.
WHEN I BOPS 'EM, THEY DON'T KNOW IT.
WELL, NEVER SAY I DIDN'T WARN YOU, MOON. IN HIS HOME TOWN THEY CALL HIM "EDDIE THE EXTERMINATOR".
IT'S TOO STUFFY THERE AT HOME. I'M GONNA GO TO A HOTEL AND GRAB ME SOME SHUT-EYE
AND FURTHERMORE, YOU DOPE, WHEN I GET IN TH' BUCKS I'LL NEVER BLOW A DIME OF MY DOUGH IN YOUR DUMP.
MOON, COME IN AND MEET MY COUSIN ED.

YOU SEE, WE WERE JUST PASSING THROUGH THE ALLEY WHEN WE HEARD THE SHOT.
YOU SAY YOU HAD A HOUSEBREAKER, MRS. MAHONEY?
I-I HAD BEEN TAKING A NAP--- I AWOKE TO SEE A MAN -- IN THE ROOM -- I TOOK THIS REVOLVER FROM THE BED TABLE AND SHOT.
WHAT WAS HE AFTER, DO YOU KNOW?
I HAVEN'T THE SLIGHTEST IDEA --YOU SEE, I'VE BEEN SUFFERING FROM A HEART AILMENT AND-- I GUESS I WAS A LITTLE NERVOUS.
BLOODSPOTS SHOW YOU WOUNDED SOMEONE, ALL RIGHT. BY THE WAY, WHERE'S YOUR DAUGHTER, BREATHLESS?
BREATHLESS? OH-- YES, BREATHLESS -ER-- SHE'S GONE TO THE COUNTRY TO VISIT A COUSIN -- ER --- LEFT SEVERAL DAYS AGO.
H'M. IT SEEMS SHE LEFT HER HAT, POCKET-BOOK AND MOST OF HER CLOTHES BEHIND, OR ARE THESE YOURS, MRS. MAHONEY?
ER--UM-- YES-- YES, THEY ARE MINE --YOU SEE, WE WEAR THE SAME CLOTHES.
IT'S A NICE TRICK IF YOU CAN DO IT.
FRIGHTENED AND AT HER WITS' END, SHE STRIKES UPON A PLAN—
STARTING WITH A SMALL BRANCH OF THE WEEPING WILLOW TREE THAT HANGS OVER THE SIDEWALK, SHE TUGS UNTIL THE MAIN LIMB IS WITHIN HER GRASP.
THEN, LOOKING AROUND TO MAKE SURE NO ONE IS WATCHING, SHE FASTENS THE KNITTING BAG WITH ITS $50,000 CARGO AND RELEASES THE LIMB.
I MUST REMEMBER THE LOCATION. WILLOW LANE AND EIGHTH STREET. I CAN COME BACK AFTER I'VE HAD THIS BULLET WOUND DRESSED.
WILLOW LANE
EIGHTH
MRS. MAHONEY, WHAT DO YOU SAY WE GET DOWN TO BRASS TACKS? WHAT HAVE YOU BEEN KEEPING IN THAT KNITTING BAG?
KNITTING BAG? WHAT DO YOU MEAN, MR. TRACY?
YOUR "HOUSEBREAKER" TOOK THAT KNITTING BAG WITH HER. AND IN HER RUSH THE LID WAS TORN OFF. WE FOUND IT AT THE FOOT OF THE STAIRS. COME, MRS. MAHONEY, WHY DID YOU SHOOT YOUR DAUGHTER?
MEANWHILE, A GARDENER LEISURELY PUSHES HIS LAWN MOWER, AND LITTLE BIRDS TWITTER IN THE LIMBS OF THE WEEPING WILLOW AS THE $50,000 SWINGS LAZILY TO AND FRO.
